'701' Study Urges Park Along Creek For Mill Valley

Army's Concrete Ditch, Fence Plans Would Be Supplanted

By FRANK FARRARA

Arroyo Corte Madera Del Presidio, which wends its way through the heart of Mill Valley, could be transformed into a "linear park" from downtown to the waterfront.

The vision, as an alternative to a concrete lined channel topped by a chain link fence, was unfolded last night by Thomas Cooke and Paul Sedway, San Francisco planning consultants.

DOWNTOWN STUDY

The gave their preliminary report on a plan for downtown, Miller Avenue and Alto Center to the city's "701" Citizens Advisory Committee at the Mill Valley Library.

It would be possible to construct the creek-park project and still meet the flood control criteria of the Army Corps of Engineers, Cooke reported.

He outlined proposals for redesign of Lytton Square into a pedestrian area and redesign of Miller Avenue, but the creek-park proposal drew the most comment.

ARMY INVOLVED

The creek-park plan cannot be undertaken unless present plans by the Army Corps of Engineers for the proposed flood control project are changed, he advised. The corps plans a concrete channel flanked by a 13-foot service road and topped by a six-foot chain link fence.

Using color slides and drawings, Cooke showed how the creek could be developed to achieve both flood control and enhancement of the area.

Creek-park development would provide a bicycle-pedestrian pathway from downtown to the waterfront, and would be a commercial stimulant, Cooke reported.

He said leaving the creek in its natural state wouldn't be realistic because there is flooding in some areas. In the proposed creek-park plan, there could be concrete, but he contended that "concrete can be okay if it's combined with natural material."

The consultants also proposed redesign of Lytton Square and adjoining area along the creek

Senate Gets Re-Written State Budget

Committee Puts Back Many Items Reagan Trimmed

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Without public debate or discussion, the Senate's $5 billion-plus budget moved to the upper house floor today with many of Gov. Ronald Reagan's economies eliminated.

A sergeant-at-arms stood guard at the door, barring newsmen and the public, when the Senate Finance Committee approved the record spending bill yesterday.

And afterward, Sen. George Miller Jr., D-Martinez, committee chairman, said he couldn't give an exact figure for the Senate's version of the Republican governor's budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

'PARED DOWN'

But he said he expected it to be lower than the $5.15 billion budget the Assembly turned out last week.

He said "we've pared down" the Assembly figure.

No explanation was given for the closed-door vote, although Senate committees often conduct some of their important business in executive session. The Governmental Efficiency Committee rewrote Reagan's tax bill behind closed doors.

One of the governor's most controversial economies, staff reductions in the mental hospitals, was mostly ignored by the Senate committee.

JOBS PUT BACK

It restored $14.6 million to the Mental Hygiene Department — all but wiping out the $17.7 million reduction Reagan sought with the initial elimination of 3,700 mental hospital jobs, later reduced to about 2,800.

That would put back 2,091 jobs in the hospitals for the mentally ill and 72 positions in the hospitals for the retarded. In addition, the committee allocated another $2 million to add 500 beds for the mentally retarded at Camarillo State Hospital, which now serves only the

AT DE GAULLE'S PALACE—Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin arrives at the Elysee Palace in Paris this morning for talks with French President Charles de Gaulle. The Communist leader reportedly hopes to persuade de Gaulle to attend tomorrow's special session of the U.N. (UPI Cablephoto)

PARIS—A grim-looking Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin stopped off today in Paris for talks with President Charles de Gaulle on the Middle East crisis. Informed sources said Kosygin would try to persuade de Gaulle to join him at the special U.N. General Assembly meeting in New York.

France and the Soviet Union had adopted similar positions on the Arab-Israeli dispute and Kosygin was reported anxious to have de Gaulle's personal support for the anti-Israeli drive before the world body.

COULD BE SUMMIT

A decision by de Gaulle to attend the Assembly could result in a Big Four summit. Reports from London said Prime Minister Harold Wilson will go to New York if a summit conference was arranged. But there was no indication yet whether President Johnson would attend although talks with Kosygin were not ruled out.

The Soviet premier flew in from Moscow with the 50-man delegation he is leading to the U.N. to spearhead the anti-Israeli drive before the world body.

He was scheduled to continue his flight to New York and the United Nations tonight, arriving early tomorrow.

Secretary General Thant called the special assembly session for 9:30 a.m. EDT tomorrow after Belgium became the 62nd nation to vote for the meeting.

BARE MAJORITY

A bare majority of the 122 member nations was all that was needed to convoke the assembly as requested by the Soviet Union.

In Moscow, it was considered virtually certain Kosygin would hold summit talks with President Johnson. The White House said yesterday Johnson would be "happy" to talk to any of the foreign dignitaries who came to the United States for the assembly meeting—although the U.S. contends that the Mideast matter should remain before the Security Council alone.

Kosygin's IL18 turboprop airliner landed at Orly airport and taxied past an El Al Airlines jet preparing to take off on a flight to Tel Aviv.

He was greeted by French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville and other high French government officials. A red carpet was extended from the Salon of Honor at Orly.

JURY CRITICIZES WELFARE FAILINGS

Four Accused Of Drawing Dole While Not Reporting Income From Undercover Jobs

By ROSS DAVIS

Four persons have been indicted for grand theft by Marin County Grand Jury following a four-month probe into county welfare chiseling by failure to report outside income.

Jury foreman Clifford S. Lund, decrying a lack of sufficient investigation and follow-up in welfare department procedures, today promised further scrutiny and an audit of all department accounts appearing "out of line."

Booked in county jail late yesterday on the indictments were Mrs. Evelyn Winifred Freel, 48, of 16 Frances Street, San Rafael; Mrs. Hazel Mae Oliver, 42, of 77 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael; and Edward J. Cornwell, 37, of 812 Estancia Way, Santa Venetia.

Also indicted was Morland Leslie Turk, 40, of 12 Ross Street, San Rafael, who is serving time in Lake County Jail for passing bad checks.

Mrs. Freel and Cornwell were released without bail. Mrs. Oliver was freed on $1,000 bail. All are scheduled for arraignment at 1:30 p.m. Monday.

Dist. Atty. Bruce Bales said a hold has been placed against Turk, to be returned to Marin County for prosecution at completion of his term in Lake County.

He said all but Mrs. Oliver are accused of drawing aid for dependent children but failing to report outside income from employment.

Mrs. Oliver allegedly failed to report income while drawing general welfare.

Bales said Mrs. Freel is accused of getting welfare assistance for three children from October of 1966 through February, but failing to report about $1,850 she received during that period by working at San Rafael Post Office under her former name, Mrs. Evelyn Lord.

She was overpaid about $1,000 in welfare, he said.

Turk obtained support for one child since March of 1966, Bales said, but did not report $2,600 he received from then until July of 1966 from painting contracting in Marin and Sonoma counties. He allegedly also was overpaid about $1,000.

Cornwell received aid for 11 children from January of 1966 to May, but allegedly paid over $1,500 by a janitorial service last year. Welfare overpayment was nearly $1,000, Bales said.

Mrs. Oliver, a divorcee, drew help from January of 1965 through last March, but did not report baby-sitting income of over $500, and about $100 monthly received from a friend, Bales said. He said she was overpaid about $2,000.

Lund said many more cases are "under scrutiny and we have requested the district attorney to prepare these cases at the earliest opportunity for possible indictment."

"The grand jury will immediately institute a detailed in-

GOP Funds Pinch Cited By Rafferty

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California's "big" Republican money is being frozen in warchests for Gov. Ronald Reagan should he become a serious candidate for the Republican presidential nomination in 1968, Dr. Max Rafferty said today.

The state's school chief, a Republican, made the statement as a group known as Friends of Rafferty kicked off in Los Angeles a "grassroots" campaign to raise $1 million—a dollar at a time—for Rofferty to run for the U.S. Senate.

Rafferty repeated again, at a news conference he called on another subject, that he will decide whether or not to run for the Senate shortly after Jan. 1 if:

1. The Friends of Rafferty and other sources have raised $1 million, or close to it.

2. And if no other candidate of his political philosophy should be leading him in the polls at that time. Rafferty said this excludes incumbent GOP Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, whom Republican conservatives consider too liberal.

Rafferty said he believes Reagan is sincere in saying he is going to be a California favorite son candidate for president merely to keep the state's GOP united.

But Rafferty said there are some leading Republican contributors "who make no bones about the fact they are planning and hoping for a deadlock and that Reagan will be nominated and elected" for president.

"I think this would be wonderful," Rafferty said, "but it makes it a little tough for us who have to go out scratching around for money."

Rafferty said he is disappointed that he and others have no chance to tap the financial resources that helped elect Sen. George Murphy and Reagan and which helped nominate former Sen. Barry Goldwater for president in 1964.

Rafferty called the news conference to criticize Senate revision of Gov. Reagan's tax program as "a disaster for public education and an attempt to play partisan politics with California's 5 million school children."

He referred specifically to committee deletion of Reagan's proposed $120 million in direct property relief and a proposal to extend the sales tax to school lunches.

But, as usual, the subject quickly turned to politics.

Fierce Battles Rage To Rescue Marines

SAIGON (UPI) — American tanks blasted Viet Cong positions at point blank range today to rescue a Marine platoon pinned down during a land-sea-air effort to crush a Communist comeback try in South Vietnam's embattled northern provinces.

U. S. officials said thousands of Marines supported by tanks stormed into Communist strongholds south of the Leathernecks' Da Nang bastion and killed 60 guerrillas in two fierce battles. The Marines reported 15 men killed and 31 wounded.

Allied and Vietnamese spokesmen said another 98 Viet Cong were killed in scattered actions throughout the rest of the country.

U.S. warships and warplanes including B-52s, pounded Communist targets along the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) dividing North and South Vietnam.

On the other side of the country, near the Cambodian border, U.S. artillerymen turned batteries of 105-mm howitzers against other Communist positions. But instead of explosives, the shells were loaded with paper. Each round carried 1,200 leaflets promising "amnesty and good treatment" for Communists who surrendered.

U.S. jets flew 136 missions over North Vietnam. They concentrated on supply routes and storage areas in the southern panhandle, spokesmen said.

One Air Force F105 Thunderchief was shot down and its pilot reported missing. It was the 584th American plane lost over North Vietnam. A helicopter was shot down near Da Nang.

Officials said Communists were coming back to the coastal areas from their mountain hideouts further inland after suffering a series of devastating defeats last year. The American offensives were designed to secure supply lines between the bases at Da Nang, Tam Ky, Chu Lai and Duc Pho.

Red Cross Saves Egyptian Troops

GENEVA (AP)—The International Red Cross said today it is making progress in the battle to save Egypt's lost army in the Sinai Desert.

Thousands of Egyptian soldiers reported dying of thirst after being left stranded by the Middle East war will now probably be rescued, the Red Cross reported.

It added that Red Cross delegates are combining with Israeli forces and using trucks, helicopters and planes to bring in the stranded Egyptians.

Board Denies Invitation To Hippies

Marin County supervisors today took pains to emphasize that a $50,000 increase in the county medical budget for the next fiscal year to care for indigent hippies who become ill is not an invitation to hippies.

"It looks like an invitation," Robert Baker of Mill Valley complained to the board. He wondered why taxpayers had to bear such a cost.

Supervisor John F. McInnis said that, as in all medical care for indigents, the county will attempt to recover costs from the patients or their parents.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr said he doubted anyone would come to Marin County for the purpose of getting ill.

Supervisors said they had received considerable public reaction to their medical budget provision. "Boy, did I get a concussion!" Supervisor William A. Gnoss said.

Senate Leaders Encourage Parley

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Senate leaders said today they would like to see talks between President Johnson and Soviet Premier Kosygin. But they said they knew of no present plans for such a conference.

Both Democratic leader Mike Mansfield and GOP leader Everett M. Dirksen said they favored the two leaders getting together during Kosygin's attendance at a United Nations General Assembly session.

Governor Elevates Nelson To Warden At San Quentin

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Reagan elevated acting Warden Louis S. Nelson today to be warden of San Quentin Prison.

Nelson, 57, replaces Lawrence E. Wilson as head of San Quentin. Wilson has been named to a $22,600-a-year job as deputy director of the State Department of Corrections.

Wilson, in his new job, will be in charge of program and staff services.

Nelson, the new San Quentin warden, is former associate superintendent of the California Medical Facility at Vacaville. He's been acting warden since the end of May. His salary will be $19,500 a year.

Nelson launched his career as a correctional officer at the former U.S. penitentiary at Alcatraz in 1940, joining the state penal system in 1948.

Viet Cong Threat

TOKYO (AP) — Radio Hanoi said today the Viet Cong have warned they will execute some American prisoners if three Viet Cong "patriots" are executed by the South Vietnamese government.

Fire Routes Hotel Guests

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—About 300 guests were evacuated from their rooms early today when fire broke out in a furniture storage area on the 18th floor of the plush Hotel Fontainebleau.

The evacuated guests, many of them wearing robes and nightgowns, stood in the lobby as firemen fought the blaze. Some carried furs and jewelry boxes. There were no injuries.

Long Begins Defense; Dodd Voting Delayed

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Sen. Thomas J. Dodd brusquely rebuffed his chief defender today when Sen. Russell B. Long sought to place him under sworn oath during the Senate censure debate.

The incident came as Long launched a blanket defense of the Connecticut Democrat with a prolonged floor speech.

Dodd's Louisiana colleague broke off his discourse to put a series of questions to Dodd. When the latter stood, Long indicated he wanted to administer an oath to tell the truth.

The silver-haired Dodd jammed his right hand in his pocket and grimly commented: "I took that oath when I came here."

Long put a series of questions to Dodd concerning an allegation that he double billed the Senate for a trip to Philedelphia where Dodd's transportation and other expenses were paid for by Villanova University.

The main theme of Long's questioning was that Dodd may have incurred extra expenses for taxi fares between the airport and the university and for getting to his Washington home upon his return, and that no double billing took place.

Long failed to produce during the morning session his much-publicized "dramatic new evidence which hasn't even been hinted at." It was understood that the evidence had to do with racy charges against four Dodd staff workers who supplied documents taken from Dodd's files to columnists Drew Pearson and Jack Anderson.

According to one Senate source, Long dropped the charges from his speech at the request of Dodd.

The Senate called off its scheduled Saturday session to give Dodd the weekend to prepare his final remarks in his own defense. The prospect was that debate would wind up sometime Monday, opening the way for voting to begin.

Long said that Dodd spent $55,670 more than he received from seven testimonial affairs between 1961 and 1965 and from contributions to his 1964 re-election campaign for political purposes.

"That $55,670 came from his own pocket," Long commented.

Reagan's Signature Brings Abortion Bill Battle To End

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California stands today with two other states — Colorado and North Carolina — which have modernized their 19th century abortion laws this year.

Gov. Ronald Reagan signed the ball yesterday ecen though he expressed reservations about some features of the measure as recently as Tuesday, just hours before it was passed by the Assembly 48-30.

The first-term governor also was besieged with thousands of letters opposing the bill. Much of the mail was written at the urging of Roman Catholic Church officials who fought the bill during its emotional three-month long journey through the legislature.

The law goes into effect 90 days after lawmakers complete their business. Many legislators don't expect they will be finished before the middle of August. Thus, it may be mid-November before the first abortion could be performed under provisions of the new law.

The old statute, unchanged in 95 years, allowed an abortion only if the prospective mother's life was in immediate danger.

The new law permits abortions, if the physical or mental health of the mother is gravely threatened, in cases of forcible rape or incest, and if the pregnancy is the result of statutory rape and the girl is 14 years old or younger.

Sen. Anthony C. Beilenson, D-Beverly Hills, the bill's sponsor, has estimated that 100,000 illegal abortions now are performed in California every year. He and doctors guessed that only 2 to 5 per cent of those would qualify for legal abortions under his new law.

To Reagan and others who had some misgivings, Beilenson said after the signing ceremony yesterday "I think those fears are unfounded."

Beilenson was relieved and happy to see the bill signed, but regretted he had to drop — because of Reagan's objection — a provision that would allow an abortion if there was a strong chance the baby would be born deformed.

"I think that's a serious problem . . . a very difficult one that thousands of families have to face."

The new law also requires that a panel of doctors approve the abortion and that it be performed within the first 20 weeks of the pregnancy.

SNIFFING THE TIME AWAY—Gov. Ronald Reagan's secretary Lyn Nofziger sneaks a sniff of roses on his boss's desk. Nofziger and the press were waiting yesterday for Reagan to appear for ceremonies including the signing of California's modernized abortion law. (AP Wirephoto)

Race Violence Simmers Down Across Nation

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Peace returned last night to several racial battlefields across the nation.

National Guardsmen patrolled Cincinnati streets in jeeps mounted with machine guns, enforcing an uneasy calm after three nights of arson, looting and sniping.

Earlier in the day, Negro workhouse prisoners went on a brief rampage at Cincinnati, breaking windows and shouting obscenities to protest maximum sentences meted out to 12 men on charges of violating the riot act Wednesday night. A force of 100 police and National Guardsmen quickly restored order with tear gas.

ALABAMA MARCH

At Montgomery, Ala., 125 Negroes staged a protest rally at a housing project after a civil rights leader was denied an audience with Gov. Lurleen Wallace to discuss a 10-point list of grievances. They marched five blocks to the project, held a 15-minute rally and disbanded without incident.

A few small bands of Negro groups roamed the westend of Dayton, Ohio, last night, throwing rocks and starting small fires. Police said the situation was under control. About 150 policemen patrolled the area and a city official said the show of force prevented major trouble.

In Lansing, Mich., about 70 Negro youths in three groups swarmed through a west side neighborhood, throwing rocks and bricks at automobiles for the second consecutive night. More than 50 policemen sealed off the area near the state capitol. A woman was injured by a brick thrown through the rear window of her car. About a dozen youths and two adults were arrested. The area experienced two violent outbreaks last summer.

BAKERY DRIVE

Dr. Martin Luther King was to open a drive in Cleveland today aimed at getting bread companies to hire more Negroes. He said if his "operation bread basket" fails he will lead a boycott of bakeries.

In Washington, Chairman William M. Colmer of the House Rules Committee moved formally yesterday to push for a vote on federal anti-riot legislation. Colmer interrupted debate on another matter to announce he was calling a rules committee meeting for June 27 to hear testimony in support of resolutions to take the controversial issue from a committee pigeonhole to the floor for a vote.

Cincinnati police chief Jacob Schott, who blamed the violence on "outsiders," said National Guardsmen would be kept in the city through the weekend.

H. Rap Brown, successor to Stokely Carmichael as head of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Commitfee, arrived in Cincinnati list night vowing the city "will be in flames" until the guardsmen pull out.

POLICE GET 'BLUE FLU' FOR A RAISE

DETROIT (UPI) — Detroit policemen went on 12-hour shifts today as hundreds of fellow officers continued a "sick call" strike in an effort to force the city to give them a wage boost.

By early today, 300 policemen of the city's 4,780-man force had called in sick with what has been nicknamed the "blue flu." More were expected today. A spokesman for the Detroit Police Officers Association (DPOA) warned the number of sick policemen would jump to 1,000 by Monday.

The Wayne County Circuit Court late yesterday ordered the DPOA to immediately halt what was termed an "illegal and unauthorize strike and work stoppage." A DPOA spokesman said the ruling would be appealed and said it had upset "a delicate balance in a labor dispute."

House Rebels Against LBJ Strike Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A defiant House rejected President Johnson's bid to guarantee settlement of a nationwide rail strike but a union pledge eased fears most U.S. trains will halt Monday.

Senate refusal to accept the surprise action — in which the House approved a 90-day no-strike extension but killed Johnson's proposal for acompulsory settlement if negotiations failed — could block indefinitely passage of legislation.

But the Railway Labor Executive Association, spokesman for 137,000 shopcraft union workers, pledged not to call a strike if the legislation goes to a House-Senate conference. The union organization's statement was read on the floor yesterday by Chairman Harley O. Staggers, D-W.Va., of the House Commerce Committee.

That appeared a temporary lifesaver for congressmen who don't want to be blamed for a strike but dont' want to be connected with a compulsory settlement, either.

The House action, taken without members having to go on record as to how they voted,was in part a reaction to two days of intensive administration pressure to approve the Senate-passed bill without any changes.

Byrnes Papers Bare World Leaders' Ideas

CLEMSON, S.C. (AP) — Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman once favored postwar dismemberment of Germany, the once-secret papers of former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes show.

And Roosevelt declared himself so "bloodthirsty" over Nazi destruction in the Crimea he invited Soviet Premier Josef Stalin to "again propose a toast to the execution of 50,000 officers of the German army."

PAPERS UNVEILED

These and other intimate glimpses at turbulent World War II times are provided in formerly top secret papers deposited with the Clemson University Library by Byrnes, Truman's one-time secretary of state and Roosevelt's so-called assistant president.

Byrnes, living in retirement in Columbia, S.C., said in an interview he had no recollection of a previous Stalin toast to the execution of German officers but presumed it had been made at the December 1943 Teheran Conference.

This reporter's review of the Byrnes papers showed a report of the Yalta meeting said Stalin replied to Roosevelt's observation that "everyone was more bloodthirsty than they had been a year ago." He added that the destruction in the Crimea was nothing compared to that in the Ukraine, where the Germans had time for methodical wrecking.

The report said of Stalin: "He said the Germans were savages and seemed to hate with a sadistic hatred the creative work of human beings."

Another Byrnes paper covered a May 28, 1945, Moscow meeting of Harry Hopkins and Ambassador W. Averell Harriman with Stalin and Soviet Foreign Minister V.M. Molotov.

GERMAN SPLIT

Hopkins, Truman's personal representative, brought up the issue of German dismemberment by observing he understood Stalin had said in a speech he was against cutting up the defeated nation.

Stalin said that at the February 1945 Yalta Conference two months before Roosevelt's death it was understood the decision was not for a positive plan to partition Germany but was a threat to be held over the Germans' heads.

The report continued: "Mr. Hopkins said that such was not his understanding of the Crimea decision and he knew that President Truman was inclined toward dismemberment and in any event was for the detachment of the Saar, Ruhr and west bank of the Rhine under international control"

Stalin conceded the Soviets once advanced a dismemberment plan but dropped it after the British opposed it. He said the matter could be discussed at the forthcoming Potsdam Conference but that he did not regard the lopping off of parts of Germany as dismemberment.

Subsequently when the matter came up at a July 1945 conference of foreign ministers in Berlin, Byrnes reminded Molotov that Roosevelt had favored dismembering Germany but had changed his mind.

DE GAULLE TACTIC

The Byrnes papers also disclose that Gen. Charles de Gaulle tried in 1945 to get the Allies to push France's border to the Rhine and that Stalin once urged the United States to take the leading role in rehabilitating postwar China.

At the Yalta meeting, Stalin was reported to have asked Roosevelt whether the U.S. President thought France should have a zone of occupation in Germany.

"The President said he thought it was not a bad idea," the report of the meeting said. "But he added that it was only out of kindness."

Algerian Boss Still Taking Tough Line

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Algeria's deceptively mild-manered President Houari Boumedienne is spearheading moves to regroup the Arab world for revenge against Israel.

Boumedienne has condemned the Soviet policy of peaceful coexistence and threatened to swing over to Red Chinese views which he rejected just a few months ago.

"There can be no neutrality in the forthcoming struggle," he told his people in a broadcast.

Boumedienne, whose shy manner conceals a will of steel, is reported convinced that Israel's war against the Arabs was part of a British-American plot to reimpose a form of colonialism on the underdeveloped countries.

The Algerian leader emerged from the Arab disaster with his forces intact and his prestige untarnished.

New York's Manhattan Island from 60th Street to its southern tip holds the greatest concentration of business activity in the world, says the New York Subways Advertising Co.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Not Criminal

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — A Thai court decided today that Gen. Thao Ma of the Laotian air force should not be deported home to stand trial for bombing Vientiane last October because his attack was political — not criminal.

The Laotian government has charged that Ma and 14 supproters took American-supplied T28 jets and bombed military installations in Vientiane to kill their superior officers for personal revenge.

In a decision clearing the way for Ma to get political asylum in Thailand, the Thai court concluded that killing Ma's superiors would not have required such a powerful force and that his attack was part of an unsuccessful coup attempt. It ordered Ma and his men released.

Base Feuding

MANILA (AP) — Philippine Foreign Secretary Narcisco Ramos said today the Philippine air force wants to set a limit on how long the United States may use one of its bases as a trans-shipment point to Vietnam.

The two governments have agreed that the United States may use Mactan Air Base on the central Philippine island of Cebu for the duration of the Vietnam war. But Ramos told a news conference the "Philippine air force has not been happy over this arrangement."

He said consultations are going on between the Philippine and U.S. governments.

Raps China

JAKARTA, Indonesia, (AP) — Indonesia's Parliament today adopted a watered-down resolution against Communist China that stopped short of calling for a break in relations.

The resolutions submitted by 13 members has called for severance of relations with China, which two years ago was one of Indonesia's closest allies.

The House accepted a new resolution which said the government should stand firm in relations with China and "if necessary carry this to the level of severing diplomatic relations."

New Russ Probe

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union launched the 166th satellite in its Cosmos series today to continue exploration of space, the Tass, the Soviet news agency, reported.

The satellite's orbit ranges from 210 to 347 miles, Tass said, and its instruments are functioning normally. The announcement did not indicate the launching of Cosmos 165 Monday.

Living Memorial

NEW DELHI, India, (AP) — Svetlana Stalin plans to finance a new women's hospital in her late Indian husband's hometown, says the Hindustan Times.

The paper said yesterday Svetlana had written her brother-in-law asking for details of hospital requirements of Kalakankar, a small village about 300 miles southeast of Delhi.

According to the paper the hospital will serve as a memorial to her late husband, Nrijesh Singh, who died in Moscow last October.

Svetlana came to India in December to immerse his ashes in the sacred Ganges River and meet his family in Kalakankar.

Svetlana's donation for the hospital is expected to come from the profits from the book she is writing about her father, Joseph Stalin.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., has lost an election — he failed to win a place on the Board of Overseers at Harvard University.

The results of the mail election among Harvard alumni spread over the world showed him among the losing five of 10 Harvard graduates nominated for the board.

The late President John F. Kennedy was a member of the Board of Overseers from 1957 to 1963, but he also failed to win election on his first nomination.

A Crime Wave

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Bureau of Investigation reports the largest three-month increase in the number of serious crimes since it began publishing quarterly crime figures in 1958.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said yesterday the crime rate soared 20 per cent during the January-March period and was distributed evenly among all geographic areas.

Bagley's Committee Eyes Divorce Reform

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Arguments over the workings of a proposal for sweeping changes in California's divorce laws may prevent passage of the measure this year.

The bill was taken under study yesterday by the Assembly Judiciary Committee. Its chairman, Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, said an effort would be made in the next month to iron out the technicalities, but if that fails the group will try "to look at the measure deeply between now and next January."

However, the bill's author, Assemblyman Winfield A. Shoemaker, D-Lompoc, remarked that "the prospects are good for getting it to the floor if we can iron out the technicalities in time. There seems to be no hard nosed opposition."

Even if the measure cleared the lower house, it would face a long and detailed examination in the Senate.

If enacted, the bill would allow only one reason for divorce in California. This would be if a judge "finds that the legitimate objects of matrimony have been destroyed and that there is no reasonable likelihood that the marriage can be saved."

The job of handling requested divorces would be done by a "family court" set up in each superior court.

Supporters at the meeting included representatives of the Catholic, Protestant and Jewish religions, judges, Negro organizations and the state Mental Health Association.

They said the bill would make it tougher to get divorces, eliminating so-called "divorce mills."

New Aerotrain May Be Answer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A noiseless train that would cruise 125 miles per hour in the center strip of freeways is the latest suggestion for Los Angeles' congested freeway system.

The aerotrain, developed from aerospace technology, would run on air instead of rails and travel within an inverted "T" concrete glideway.

Such a novel train will start inter-city runs in France between Paris and Orleans next spring, the aerotrain's developers said here yesterday.

Jean Bertin, an aeronautical engineer, said he has set a goal of 250 to 300 miles an hour for the train. Initial runs next year will be 200 miles per hour, he said.

Reagan Opposes State TV Plan

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Gov. Ronald Reagan said yesterday that he opposes a proposed statewide educational television network because it would put the state in competition with commercial TV.

In addition, Reagan said, such a network would create the "dangerous potential of putting the state into the propaganda business."

Closed-circuit TV, however, is a "tremendous educational tool" for schools, the governor told 1,400 persons at a joint luncheon meeting of the California Broadcasters Association and the Greater San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

Sale Suspension

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control has ordered a 10-day suspension of the off-sale general liquor license of Harbor Liquor Store, Inc., 553 Redwood Highway, Mill Valley, on charges of sale to a minor. The suspension takes effect Aug. 1.

General Says Guard Cuts Could Hurt Riot Control

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The ability of the California National Guard to handle riots and disasters would be seriously hampered by a proposed federal reorganization, the state's Guard leader charges.

Maj. Gen. Glenn C. Ames, state adjutant general, told an Assembly committee yesterday that California "won't accept" the revamping mapped out by the Defense Department.

"There is a very serious loss in our ability to respond to civil disorders due to loss in hard-to-find skills such as medical and signal and transportation," Ames told the Assembly State Personnel and Veterans Affairs Committee.

He testified that the main problem isn't the overall reduction of strength—just slightly more than a 300-man reduction out of more than 22,000 guardsmen.

The technical change is the elimination of the present two divisions in exchange for three smaller brigades.

"We're not too badly off in strength," he explained. "It's in composition and loss of leadership that hurts."

His charts demonstrated that the number of command headquarters would be cut from 62 to 35, with similar sharp cuts in the field grade officers. Colonels would be a particular cutback target.

"Most of those gentlemen have had Army schools and combat in World War II and Korea and this is experience you just can't replace by putting in other men," he declared.

Ames said that he has received support from Gov. Ronald Reagan in these criticisms and is preparing a report for the governor to submit to federal authorities.

SACRAMENTO SUMMARY

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

THE GOVERNOR

Bills signed:

Abortion — Liberalizes the state abortion law to allow more legal terminations of pregnancy; SB 462, Beilenson, D-Beverly Hills.

Apprentice — Bars discrimination in apprenticeship programs on basis of race, religion, sex or national origin; AB 490, Ralph, D-Los Angeles.

THE ASSEMBLY

Bills passed:

Salaries — Increases salaries of lieutenant governor, secretary of state, state controller, state treasurer, superintendent of public instruction and attorney general as of Jan. 1, 1971; provides those persons with $5,000 annual expense allowance; AB 2453, Unruh, D-Inglewood.

Glue — Makes a misdemeanor "glue sniffing" — inhalation of toluene and similar substances with intent to become intoxicated; AB 2280, Wilson, R-San Diego.

Conflict — Makes member of governing board or commission of a local agency guilty of misconduct if he does not disclose financial interest in contract that agency makes; AB 2075, Bagley, R-San Rafael.

Degree — Broadens definition of "degree" as requirement for teaching credential to include equivalent degrees granted by foreign higher learning institutions; AB 395, Cory, D-Westminster.

Discriminate — Makes an unlawful employment practice discrimination in membership or employment by professional organizations because of race, religion, color or national origin; AB 2182, B. Greene, D-Los Angeles.

Deduct — Allows firm to deduct from gross income for tax purposes 25 per cent of pay to employ or train disadvantaged person; AB 1258, Burton, D-San Francisco.

Obscenity — Requires local law enforcement agencies to report misdemeanor violations of obscenity laws to State Bureau of Criminal Statistics; AB 2145, Barnes, R-San Diego.

THE SENATE

Bills passed:

Board — Prohibits persons from serving more than two terms on any board within Professional and Vocational Standards Department, except those now serving; SB 812, Short, D-Stockton.

Liquor — Permits transfer of liquor licenses from one country to another under certain circumstances provided the buyer in receiving county is not charged more than $10,000; SB 767, Dolwig, R-Atherton.

Credit — Tightens law prohibiting fraudulent use of credit cards; SB 1055, McCarthy, R-San Rafael.

Registration — Deletes law requiring vehicle registration card be displayed within vehicle and requires only that card be carried with vehicle and shown to peace officer on demand; AB 958, Foran, D-San Francisco.

Aliens — Permits state to employ non-U.S. citizens living in California if they indicate intent to become citizens; AB 1048, Sieroty, D-Beverly Hills.

Resolution approved:

Funds — Appropriates $900,000 of legislative contingent funds for Legislative Budget Committee expenses; SCR 50, Miller, D-Martinez.

Weapons Ban May Hamper War Films

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Hollywood movie makers are only a couple of legislative steps away from having to line up with such groups as the Minutemen and Black Panthers if they want to use military type weapons in California.

The film world was mentioned by Assemblyman W. Craig Biddle, R-Riverside, as among those who would be subject to proposals in his four tough weapons bills.

Three of the measures, already approved by the Assembly, were approved last night by the Senate Judiciary Committee. Two were sent to the Senate Finance Committee, a third to the Senate floor. The fourth was held in committee to toughen up.

But although applicable to everyone, the measures are really not aimed against Hollywood but against "misguided zealots," said Charles A. O'Brien, chief state deputy attorney general.

O'Brien specifically named the Minutemen, a pari-military patriotic organization which buys its own arms, and the Black Panthers, an Oakland-based Negro group which disrupted the Assembly with loaded weapons May 2.

mentally ill.

Miller said mental health is now "adequately if not generously financed to meet the needs" of the hospital patients.

The Assembly also restored money for the Mental Hygiene Department.

Miller said the Senate budget "will meet the needs of the people of California."

The Senate, he said, could vote on the bill Monday or Tuesday. It then will go back to the Assembly. The lower house will rejected the Senate version, throwing the bill into a two-house conference committee for a final settlement.

Miller expressed hope the conference committee would begin work Thurday, and have it on the governor's desk in time for him to sign it by the deadline, midnight, June 30, the end of the current fiscal year.

Reagan originally proposed a $4.62 billion budget, but then upped it to $5.06 billion. He has the power to veto individual items in the budget and it would take a two-thirds vote of each house to override him.

Member Drive

The Sleepy Hollow Homes Association last night laid final plans for a three-week membership drive, according to Herbert A. Brauner, president.

Patrick Plans Suit In Boycott

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — San Rafael cosmetics manufacturer William Penn Patrick, of Tiburon, said today he would file a $50 million suit against the Idaho AFL-CIO for urging unionists to boycott his products.

Patrick said the Idaho AFL-CIO passed a boycott resolution last week because of his participation in a move to recall Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho.

"Now I'm going to throw our full forces against Sen. Frank Church. Whatever it takes, I'm prepared to spend," plus "getting people to go up there to work," said Patrick, who is a Republican.

So far, he told a news conference, he has spent little more than the $375 it cost to print the recall petitions against Church. They were printed in San Rafael where he operates his cosmetics plant with non-union employees.

Patrick, who said he will probably oppose Sen. Thomas Kuchel for the Republican nomination for senator from California, opposes Church because he is a dove on Viet Nam.

Patrick ran unsuccessfully for the Republican nomination for governor against victorous Ronald Reagan.

PLAN

to create a "major pedestrian area."

Lytton Square is a unique resource and a large part of Mill Valley's character stems from it, Cooke said.

"Traffic would be redirected around the periphery to improve pedestrian use of the square, increase access to surrounding establishments and encourage properly located parking areas," the planners reported.

Cooke said the present parking area at the square is a misuse of the area.

Rather than try to create open space for a "village green" effect, the city should try to maintain the urban character which contrasts with the natural setting, Cook said.

He also proposed that the Greyhound Bus terminal be removed and the building leased for shops or restaurants. "Bus service should terminate at the south end of the square," he said.

Some of the other recommendations on Lytton Square were:

Creek areas could be developed into a small park retaining the major trees scattered throughout. Municipal offices should be expanded across the creek to property on West Blithedale Avenue adjoining the Outdoor Art Club.

El Paseo should be extended to open onto the park and provide a link to Lytton Square.

Development at the end of Bernard Street would increase commercial frontage and improve the square.

The planners proposed eliminating parking in the center of Miller Avenue retaining a residential area in upper Miller Avenue, from just south of Sunnyside Avenue to Willow Avenue.

Cooke said that in the lower Miller Avenue area, from Willow Avenue to Valley Circle, the major retail development should be on the east side.

He also proposed re-design of Miller Avenue from Willow Avenue to Camino Alto to provide for ample pedestrian area on the east side. In the La Gomas area, commercial development could be centered around a stilling basin planned for the flood control project, he noted.

Regarding the Alto Center, the planners said many uses are appropriate and feasible, but confined their recommendation to a program for land assembly and general use. They said the area is being developed in a piecemeal, uncoordinated manner.

Cooke explained that last night's session was to present a series of planning choices. Reports containing more detail, costs and "advantages and disadvantages" will be presented at future sessions.

The plan is scheduled to be completed in August, and then public hearings will be scheduled. The planning project has been called the 701 program because it is partly financed by a federal grant from the Department of Housing and Urban Development under Section 701 of the Housing Act of 1954.

Shawl Stolen

Martha C. Luft of 1287 Leafwood Drive, Novato, reported to San Rafael police yesterday that someone stole a six-foot by 18-inch hand made shawl valued at $150 from the art room at Terra Linda High School.

RUSSIA

lined with four Soviet hammer and sickle flags.

In New York the United Nations disclosed today that guided tours will be suspended beginning next Monday for the duration of the emergency session of the General Assembly and other tight security restrictions will be in effect.

In the Middle East, estimates of the number of refugees from the six-day war rose to close to 390,000, according to an International Red Cross official in Beirut.

Syria offered yesterday to ship food to Jordan to replace crops lost in the fighting or taken by the Israelis in Jordanian territory west of the Jordan River.

In Israel, the outlook was for an increase in military expenditurs, rather than a drop, as a result of the victory over the Arabs.

The Israeli armed forces conquered hundreds of square miles of Arab territory, and officials believe a larger army will be needed to occupy it.

In another development, Libya asked Britain to close its military bases on Libyan soil and withdraw its troops, and Cairo Radio said the United States had been asked to abandon Wheelus Air Force Base in Libya.

President Johnson held a midday conference with secretary of State Dean Rusk, Defense Secretary Robert McNamara, and McGeorge Bundy, the executive officer of his newly created Middle East Crisis Committee.

The Johnson administration faced two major dilemmas:

How to rally enough U.N. support to forestall an assembly resolution branding Israel an aggressor and demanding it pull back to her pre-war boundaries without any guarantees against renewed Arab harassment of the sort which triggered last week's war.

How to promote some aspect positive to U.S. interests in the meeting American officials have acknowledged would have to take place between Kosygin and Johnson.

The Washington consensus, however, appeared to be that prospects for progress on either front were dim. This was attributed to the nature of Russia's steamroller moves to whitewash the Arabs and recapture prestige it lost when its Moscow-armed Middle East friends collapsed before Israeli military forces.

No Rock Move

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Park Service says it has no intention of moving Plymouth Rock to make room for a parking lot.

"The master plan now being developed for the proposed memorial does not call for a change of location for Plymouth Rock," Barthon L. Holl, deputy park service director, said yesterday.

Wage Protested

The San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce yesterday adopted a resolution protesting the $1.65 an hour minimum wage proposed by the state industrial welfare commission because it would "work a hardship on small businesses."

Bicycle Taken

Gerda Roth, 402 Golden Gate Avenue, Belvedere, told Tiburon sheriff's deputies yesterday her bicycle has been missing for two weeks from Reed School, Tiburon.

Trustees Meet

Fairfax School District trustees last night met at Manor School and approved, after discussion, board rules and regulations which are now to be distributed to personnel.

Candy Taken

Someone kicked in the door of the San Anselmo Little League building at Memorial Park last night and took about $10 worth of cigarettes and candy, according to police.

No Session

Tiburon parks and recreation commission did not meet last night as scheduled, chairman Irving Moulin said the commission will meet next Wednesday at 8 p.m. at city hall.

vestigation of general and administrative procedures followed in the welfare department to determine what controls are established to safeguard public funds against this type of abuse," he said.

"We frankly are not satisfied that enough investigation and follow-up is exercised in welfare department procedures to determine the amount and continuance of eligibility."

He said his committee got good assistance from the state Department of Social Services in Sacramento.

"The grand jury intends to deliver a full, frank and complete report at the earliest possible date," said Lund. "We are going to audit any welfare accounts that appear to be out of line. We will check them out thoroughly and will request indictments in any cases involving falsification of affidavits or failure to report other income."

Lund said the jury is not criticizing either state or Marin County welfare personnel at this time, but wants to know if there is more chiseling — and if so, how extensive it is.

Bales said his office has filed "one of two" welfare chiseling cases each six months since he has been in office. "I estimate we have filed no more than half a dozen a year," he said, "and I don't recall that we've lost any of them."

Maximum penalty on conviction is up to 10 years in prison.

Dishwasher Arrested In Plot On Kosygin

NEW YORK (UPI) — An unemployed dishwasher was arrested today on charges of plotting to blow up the Russian United Nations Mission where Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin is expected to take up residence tomorrow.

The arrest of the man, identified as John Carl Erickson, with a shopping bag full of Molotov cocktails came as New York police prepared extraordinary security arrangements to protect Kosygin.

College Offers Class For Future Freshmen

Dog Claws Child

A brown dog clawed John Fraser, 5, while the boy was playing near his home at 90 Duran Drive, San Rafael, his mother, Mrs. Terry A. Fraser, reported to police yesterday afternoon. The dog, owner of which was not identified, was put in quarantine by the Marin County Humane Society.

OBITUARIES

Thomas M. Redmayne Dies At 68

Thomas M. Redmayne Sr., former San Rafael garage owner and newstand operator, died today in a local hospital after a long illness. He was 68.

Born in Washington, Nevada County, Redmayne came to Marin County as a child. For many years he owned a garage business at B and Third streets and later a newsstand on Fourth Street.

He operated the newsstand for about five years before retiring eight years ago.

Redmayne was a veteran of of World War I, during which he served in the Army Signal Corps.

He is survived by his wife, Carmelita Redmayne; a son, Thomas M. Redmayne Jr. of San Rafael; a daughter, Minsie L. Redmayne of Napa; and a sister, Bernice Vanderbilt of San Rafael.

Funeral will be Tuesday at 11 a.m. at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery. Friends may call at Keaton's after 7 p.m. Sunday.

LESLIE FARNHAM

Military graveside service for Leslie Alvin Farnham, 74, of 790 St. Francis Avenue, Novato, a retired railroad clerk who died Tuesday in San Francisco after a long illness, will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at Marin Memorial Gardens in Novato.

Farnham was a native of Sacramento and lived there until retiring in 1956 to live with his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Charles Bishop, in Novato.

He had served as a sergeant in the army during World War I. He worked as a railway clerk with the Southern Pacific Co. for 37 years in the Sacramento yard office until retiring.

He was a retired member of Lodge 198, Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks; a life member of Fort Sutter American Legion Post 392 of Sacramento, and a member of the 91st Division Association.

He is survived by his wife, Lorraine W. Farnham of Novato; his daughter, Mrs. Helen Bishop; two sisters, Mrs. Neva Williams of Boulder, Colo., and Mrs. Mildred Axtell of Stockton; two brothers, Lloyd of Hayward and Wilbur of Oakland, and one grandchild.

JAY McKINNON

Funeral for Jay McKinnon, 75, of Morales Avenue, Forest Knolls, will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael.

McKinnon, a retired bus driver from Minot, N. D., died at his home yesterday of a heart attack.

Coroner Donovan O. Cooke reported McKinnon's health appeared normal until he returned home from getting the mail at the Forest Knolls Postoffice, when he collapsed with severe chest pains.

A native of Port Huron, Mich., he had been a resident of Marin for 16 years.

McKinnon was working as a city bus driver in Minot in 1942 when recruiters arrived in town seeking men for war work at Marinship in Sausalito.

He took a job as a chipper leadman at the shipyard and the family stayed in Marin until 1945. Then they moved back to North Dakota, where McKinnon operated a grocery store until 1951 when he returned to Marin. He worked as a carpenter here until retiring.

The McKinnons celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last December.

Surviving are his wife, Hulda, two sons, Harvey V. McKinnon of Portland, Ore., and Gaylord H. McKinnon of Colorado Springs, Colo., three sisters, Mrs. Alfred Fairman of Pontiac, Mich., Mrs. Margaret Orr of Portland, Ore., and Mrs. Annabelle Boltz of Jamestown, N. D., three grandchildren, and one great-grandson.

Private burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

Rock 'N' Roller Pleads Innocent On Marijuana

Jerry A. Miller, 24, long-haired and bearded member of the Moby Grape rock 'n' roll combo, yesterday pleaded innocent in Marin Municipal Court to marijuana possession.

Judge Peter Allen Smith scheduled preliminary hearing on the felony for 2:30 p.m. June 30.

Miller, of 503 Pinco Avenue, Mill Valley, and two other members of the five-man group, Peter Lewis, 22, of 370 Sunset Way, Tamalpais Valley, and Alex Spence, 22, of 110 Redwood Avenue, Corte Madera, also pleaded innocent to a joint misdemeanor complaint of contributing to the delinquency of three "flower girl" minors.

Judge Smith scheduled jury trial for 9:30 a.m. Aug. 14. They are represented by Terrence Hallinan, San Francisco attorney.

The three musicians and three 17-year-old San Mateo County girls were arrested by sheriff's officers on a fire trail above Marin City June 7.The girls were booked into Juvenile Hall on suspicion of marijuana possession.

Sanitation District Studies Pay Raise

San Rafael Sanitation District employees requested salary adjustments and a 5 per cent cost of living raise yesterday, but the district board took no action on the request.

Chairman Fred E. Jensen said the board will wait to see what the City of San Rafael does on salaries, and then probably "do the same."

The district's five employees asked that they be "put in the same salary ranges as city employees with like jobs and responsibilities."

Directors cut $15,600 from a proposed $731,554 budget for fiscal 1968, including $15,000 from the fund allocated for improvements at the Seaway lift station and $600 from the a utomobile maintenance account.

Directors advised Charles Paganini that his application for annexation of his property at Paganini Point should include tideland lots.

Apprentices Bill Is Signed

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan has signed into law a bill making it illegal to discriminate in trade apprenticeship programs on the basis of race, sex, creed, color or national origin.

In announcing the signing yesterday, the governor expressed fears that a portion of the measure prohibiting discrimination on the basis of sex could cause problems.

The measure was authored by Negro Assemblyman Leon Ralph, D-Los Angeles.

OPERATION MULBERRY TREE

When an oak tree died in the back yard at the home of Mrs. Henry Bercut of Ross, the only way out for the 4-ton stump was over the house. Today workmen, headed by landscape architect William L. Kapranos, "boomed" a 2½-ton fullgrown mulberry tree in as replacement. Eighteen men worked on the five-day job and broke only two shingles. Tree guiders on the roof are Paul Servelli (left) and Frank Peccorini. On the ground are Tom Gladney (left), John Stobbe and Jerry Peccorini. (Independent-Journal photo)

Death Date Set Third Time For Valley Slayer

Edmund Earl Reeves, killer of a Bakersfield area oil worker, was given his third date with death in the San Quentin gas chamber today.

He is scheduled to die Aug. 8 in an order signed by Kern County Superior Court Judge J. Kelly Steele.

Reeves received a stay of execution of his Oct. 11, 1966 death date pending an appeal. Eight days before he was due to die a second time — set for March 28 — he was granted a stay on appeal he was not adequately represented at his Kern County trial.

Reeves was one of the four Death Row inmates who tried to escape Jan. 30. They used hacksaws apparently smuggled in through the prison plumbing. None of them left the building.

The U.S. Navy's main contribution to the North American Air Defense Command is the Space Surveillance System.

Felon Plans Lawsuit Over Pal's Pact

A 26-year-old San Qentin life prisoner said today he is going to sue a fellow prisoner — now on parole — who, he said, double-crossed him over a Braille writing machine invention.

Robert Lokey, of Sacramento, said he alone invented the machine and drew the design.

He said he signed a contract with Lawrence Dotson under which they would share the net profits.

Dotson, a convicted murderer, was released on parole May 4 and at the prison gates told the press his plans to manufacture the machine.

He made no mention of Lokey, and the agrieved Lokey said today he had not heard from Dotson since his release.

Lokey may find sueing someone easier said than done. He is serving a life sentence for murder without the possibility of parole and for kidnaping involving bodily injury.

A convict's rights in civil matters are limited. Associate Warden James W. L. Park said today, and in all events, Lokey would not be allowed to appear in a civil court.

"The only hope Lokey has of getting out is if a governor of California commutes his sentence," said Park.

Supervisors Vote Chambers' Fund

A county budget for promotion and development for next fiscal year of $66,000, with no funds allocated for city chambers of commerce, was approved by county supervisors yesterday without any of the long, labored discussions that have marked such allocations in the past.

Supervisors, in effect, adopted a recommendation by County Administrator Alan Bruce to provide $30,000 to be divided between the county chamber of commerce and the Marin Visitors Bureau, with the latter getting three-sevenths and the former getting the balance, and $30,000 for county cultural activities to be distributed in a board session July 11, well after the budget is final.

Past budget hearings have brought long testimony from chambers and special groups on their needs. The budget has also prompted controversy over need for a promotion director, a position established two years ago and dropped this spring. The budget for the current fiscal year was $108,190.

The total of $66,000 will be partially offset by $26,000 anticipated in revenue from the hotel-motel room tax charged in unincorporated areas of the county.

Supervisors, continuing their budget deliberations today, approved inclussion of $6,000 in the communications budget to join a police information network in which warrants and other data will be on file in a central computer in Alameda, providing patrolling officers with radio response on wanted persons.

The service would begin Jan. 1. A full year cost will be $12,000.

Supervisors approved a cutback in the 4-H Club program under the County Farm Advisor's Office, setting up a contract with Sonoma County to share one man. Donald Brittsan, currently fulltime in Marin, will move to the Sonoma County office, and devote two-third of this time there and one-third in Marin.

The change was prompted by a freeze in filling positions ordered in the state University Extension Service, which pays the salaries of advisors. Marin will pay $1,830 to Sonoma to cover a third share of Brittsan's mileage, office overhead, and clerical help.

Dancer's Pursuer To Be Handed To East Bay Police

James Reece, 25-year-old bread truck driver injured in a traffic accident while reportedly pursuing dancer Yvonne D'Angiers in Fairfax, will be turned over to Alameda County law enforcement officers without charges here.

Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales said Reece is wanted there on complaint including assault with intent to kill, burglary, and escape, and any charge in Marin County would be of a less serious nature.

Reece was treated at Marin General Hospital for internal injuries suffered when the stolen car he was driving crashed into Fairfax Creek on Saturday. He was transferred to San Quentin Prison hospital and held there at request of Alameda sheriff's officers.

Miss D'Angiers, whose real name is Carmilla Ettlinger, of 31 Woodland Avenue, Fairfax, said Reece followed her car, once apparently brandished a weapon, then crashed into the creek.

Woodacre Youth Pinned By Auto

A Woodacre youth was pinned between his car and a tree at 1 Idalia Road, San Anselmo yesterday at 7:30 p.m., according to San Anselmo police.

Robert Horton, 18, of 30 Madrone Avenue, Woodacre, was in good condition at Marin General Hospital today with a fractured nose and facial cuts.

Police said Horton was standing in front of the car with the hood up when the car started to roll backwards. He tried to open a door to stop it, and the car hit a tree, trapping him. He was unconscious when police arrived.

Leydecker Still Fair

Byron W. Leydecker, president of Redwood National Bank, was reported in fair condition at Marin General Hospital today, where he has been under treatment since a heart attack June 5.

College Will Honor Senior Citizens' Help

Six residents of the Hillcrest Rest Home in Santa Venetia are to be honored at the College of Marin graduation today for their assistance as volunteers in the College of Marin Foundation fund drive.

Mrs. Ruby Schneider, Louise Givonovich, Mrs. Lottie Bury, Lorry Ehrer, John Poole and rest home director Mrs. Ann Schlotsin handled about 6,000 pieces of mail for the fund drive, according to Mrs. Margery B. Sell of the Volunteer Bureau of Marin County.

Sessions Canceled

The regular meeting last night of Marin City Community Services District directors was canceled, reported director Orpha Elmina Barnes. Directors will hold a closed meeting tomorrow at 10 a.m. in the boys' club to interview applicants for director of the Manzanita Community Center.

COSTS OF MENTAL HEALTH SOARING

Supervisors Approve $771,000 Budget; Aid Will Slash Outlay To $228,000

By DAVID DIETZ

Marin County's share of local mental health costs in fiscal 1968 was estimated at $228,000 yesterday as the burden of patient care continued to increase dramatically.

Budget figures presented at a hearing of the board of supervisors showed operation costs of the Community Mental Health Service Department have soared seven-fold in two years.

$80,000 HIKE

In 1965, the mental health budget was $113,000. Yesterday the supervisors approved a spending program of $771,000. Of this, state and federal funds are expected to cut county costs to around $228,000, an increase of $80,000 over this year.

Further relief of the county share is hoped for next month when state Short-Doyle Act funds are allocated.

The budget of Dr. Clyde G. Miller, director of mental health services, included a rise in salaries from $152,862 to $395,928 for next fiscal year, primarily because of raises recently approved by the supervisors. But the board sought to check the salary boost by following a series of cuts recommended by Asst. County Administrator Thomas F. Campanella.

CUTS OPPOSED

Several civic and health organizations and Marin's three municipal court judges, who were interested principally in treatment for alcoholics, opposed any cuts in letters to the board.

Eliminated from the budget against the wishes of Miller were two new three-member traveling clinics to provide psychiatric services to children near their homes, which would have cost the county $8,000; a part-time mental health educator at a county cost of $542, and three more clerical workers, proposed at a county cost of $5,000.

INSTITUTE FUNDS

Miller and Campanella agreed on reducing to $10,000 the appropriation of awaited Short-Doyle funds to the Marin Institute on Alcoholism in San Rafael. But the supervisors voted unanimously to give the maximum 88-patient clinic $43,000, after Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen objected that the institute could not survive on $10,000.

"These agencies are going to have to learn to get along," added Kettenhofen, referring to a funding disagreement between Miller and Daniel Meyerson, executive director of the institute, which operates under a third-party pace with the county.

The $43,000 will halt expansion of the clinic while the supervisors scrutinize its fiscal operations during the year, it was agreed.

Campanella said forthcoming Short-Doyle funds probably will relieve the county of two-thirds of its share in running the institute.

DEPUTY URGED

Miller and Campanella, with ratification by the supervisors, also concurred on hiring a deputy director of services at a county cost of $2,688 annually, and on $5,001 in county money toward the Ross Psychiatric Clinic, also operating under a third-party arrangement.

In other budget developments yesterday, supervisors:

1. Increased by $4,500 to $19,500, its share of the costs in the program for underpriveleged chokdren by the Marin County Economic Opportunity Council.
2. Turned down, during consideration of the probation department budget, Director Walter H. Busher's request for $1,810 to finance a snow trip and camping trip, each a week long, for children at the family rehabilitation center.
3. Rejected a request by Robert Brauer, executive director of the Human Rights Commission, for a field representative to discuss hiring of minority groups with Marin businessmen.
4. Rejected, 3-2, with supervisors Peter H. Behr and Thomas T. Storer dissenting, a request by Dr. Miller to raise employee training funds to $5,000 then approved, 3-2, (Behr and Storer again dissenting) Campanella's recommendation to appropriate $2,900 for training.

Tiburon's Fire Budget Boosted By $30,000

Directors of Tiburon Fire Protection District last night adopted a budget of $187,272.66 for fiscal 1968, up nearly $30,000 from this year's $158,800.

Figures include $95,505 for salaries; $19,810 for maintenance; $31,957.66 for capital outlay, and $40,000 for operating reserve funds.

Directors granted a 5 per cent salary increase to paid men, starting July 1, and authorized hiring one additional fireman. Chief Franklin J. Buscher had asked for two more men.

The budget includes $10,000 for flood control at the main station, $1,500 for drainage at the Trestle Glen station, and a down payment of $4,000 on a squad truck.

An increase in the tax rate appears inevitable but Chief Buscher said no estimate would be made by the board until final assessed valuation figures are known.

Undersized Clams Cause $35 Fines

Three persons were each fined $35 Wednesday in Northwest Marin Justice Court for having in their possession May 26 undersized cockle clams from Tomales Bay State Park.

Fined by Judge David R. Baty were: Chinn Lan Callan, 27, of 359 Tennessee Avenue, Mill Valley; Albert V. Scavino, 35, of El Cerrito and Gordon S. Freiday, 55, of Petaluma.

Controversial Bolinas Mud Study Started

A sediment study is at last underway at Bolinas Lagoon and is expected to clear the muddy waters stirred by controversy over who is to make what study when and where.

Specially-made equipment — including a laser beam — will be used in the study, started by the Water Resources Division of the U.S. Geological Survey in cooperation with the Bolinas Harbor District and county planners.

The first field measurement will be made Thursday, and in later phases, a plane of light from a laser will be used as a reference in surveying the bottom of the lagoon.

Purpose of the study will be to provide a basis for planning the recreational development of the area while preserving wildlife features, according to R. Stanley Lord, the division's district chief.

Hydrologic studies will determine sediment and fresh-water inflow through the lagoon entrance at Bolinas and also the movement of littoral drift along the split.

Later, further surveys aimed at determining circulation patterns and sediment movement within the lagoon may be undertaken.

New equipment will be brought into use, including a series of meters continuously recording velocities of water moving at different depths through the entrance. A boat has been specially designed for this work.

Early last month, county planning commissioners were confused as to who was to make a study and the Marin Conservation League complained there was lack of co-ordination between the harbor district and the planning department.

This was later resolved when the planning department was given the go ahead to arrange the ecological study, and the harbor district agreed to investigate a topographic study.

Vacationing Officer Injured In Smashup

John Higgins, 33, of 87 Woodland Avenue, San Ansemlo, was reported in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital with a bruised abdomen and cut tongue suffered just before last midnight when he drove into a parked car at 2000 Bridgeway, Sausalito.

Higgins, a vacationing Sausalito patrolman, two weeks ago was granted his request for a leave of absence from the police department for personal reasons, effective July 1, Police Chief Edward S. Kreins said today.

Warrant Seeks Attack Suspect

San Rafael police today sought a warrant from the district attorney's office for arrest of a 26-year-old Fairfax man, who allegedly kidnaped and raped a 46-year-old San Rafael grandmother early yesterday.

The woman, police said, reported she left Milani's Tavern at Third and B streets at 2 a.m. After she got into her car, a man whom she later identified as Johnnie Mack Taylor, 26, of 49 Maple Drive, Fairfax, opened the car door, forced her to move over, then drove into the hills and attacked her.

Officers said the victim identified her alleged assailant, a car salesman, from police photographs.

Condition Unchanged For Injured Woman

No change was reported today in the critical condition of Lena Marie de Matei, 74, of 45 San Rafael Drive, San Rafael, in Marin General Hospital suffering head and back injuries in a street accident Wednesday.

Mrs. de Matei, mother-in-law of San Rafael Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa, was hit by a car as it made a left turn from the east-bound lane of Fifth onto Lincoln Avenue, said police.

Greenbrae Collision Hurts Two Persons

Two persons suffered minor injuries in a two-car rear-end crash at 2:30 p.m. yesterday on Bon Air Road in Greenbrae, the California Highway Patrol reported.

A car driven by Ella Mae Gullye, 36, of Richmond, which had stopped in traffic, was hit in the rear by one driven by Kenneth Monroe Webster, 57, of 47 James Street, Mill Valley, the patrol said. The injured were Dorothy Webster, a nurse's aid at nearby Marin General Hospital, who was treated there for a neck sprain, and Webster's wife, Dorothy, 43, who was treated for a shoulder cut.

The Great Garter-Length, Garter-less Stay-Up Sock That's Going Nowhere.
Mid-Lengths t.m. by Burlington.

It's a fact. Mid-Lengths won't dip. Or droop. Or slip. They stay a hip half-calf high without garters. Even after lots of fancy footwork.

Burlington used Lycra spandex in a special construction to put stay-up power throughout the entire sock. This makes Mid-Lengths conform to the shape of the calf, caress the entire leg. Gives them a snug-feeling hug that won't give in under action, won't give out even after the longest wear.

It's something new for every type of sock wearer.

Mid-Lengths comes in many handsome styles, in a masculine array of colors. $1.50 and $2 the pair.

Lynch Clarifies Rule On Hiring Policemen

Police and sheriffs' departments are not required to provide officers for special school events except to insure security measures, Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch held this week.

Lynch said it is the city's duty to send officers to control crowds and prevent disturbances, but not to serve as ticket collectors, ushers, or chaperones.

Marin high schools and other organizations frequently contract with police officers in their district for special services during off-duty hours, Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos said. The men are paid an hourly rate by the organization.

Mountanos said it is the responsibility of the law enforcement agencies to keep the peace but anyone wanting extra men will have to pay for them.

Police departments in Marin follow the same protection practices. San Anselmo Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani said his officers are assigned to direct traffic at special events but usually will not work inside. "We don't have the manpower, he said. "I'd have to move a man in from somewhere else."

The attorney general stressed it is not the sole responsiility of the city to maintain law and order at football games, dances and other special school activities. "The school itself is under the duty to supervise the conduct of pupils and must take appropriate action to prevent breeches of the peace and other disturbances," he wrote.

Mountanos said he was quite delighted with the attorney general's ruling saying, "It reinforces the field of law enforcement."

Personnel Commissioners Ask Guidance On Duties

The Marin County Personnel Commission yesterday asked for some direction from county supervisors on the duties of the commission.

"I think we should be taking some of the load off the supervisors," Commissioner Hugh Marchant declared. "So far, I don't think we've done that. If we are just making work for them, we are not doing our job."

One of the few actions in yesterday's commission meeting was to agree on July 18 for a joint session with supervisors. This would be one of a series of session of the board of supervisors with various commissions and committees.

The commission discussed the salary schedule adopted by supervisors last week—a schedule that the commission had no part in preparing. Members saw recommendations prepared by the personnel department on fringe benefits—another document that the commission had no part in preparing.

Commissioners Bella H. Aaron and Victor P. Reid were absent.

Seminary Zone Hearing Slated

The San Anselmo Planning Commission will consider San Francisco Theological Seminary's request for rezoning from single-family to duplex and neighborhood apartment zones at 108 Ross Avenue and 99 Woodland Avenue Monday at 8 p.m. at City Hall.

A seventh public hearing will be held on changes in requirements for residential zones in the zoning ordinance.

The commission will consider the First Presbyterian Church of San Anselmo's request to add classrooms and offices to the church on Kensington Avenue between Mariposa and Ross avenues.

Four owners request rezoning from neighborhood apartments to general commercial at 821, 825 and 831 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

Marin Students Earn Degrees In Dentistry

Three Marin students were graduated from University of Pacific's School of Dentistry in San Francisco Wednesday.

They are Thomas E. Love of San Rafael, who was recipient of the Ernest G. Sloman Memorial Anatomy, the C. V. Mosby and the American Dental Society of Anesthesiology awards; Kenneth Pieri of Kentfield, and Curtis N. Klein of Mill Valley.

Lettuce Price Hurts Buyers

SALINAS (AP) — The lettuce industry and consumers are harvesting the results of poor spring weather that reduced planting, diminished yields, and affected quality.

The price of lettuce from the famous Watsonville, King City, Salinas producing district is $5.50-6.00 for a carton of 24 heads. A year ago the price was $1.50. Lettuce in the Salinas Valley was a $52 million crop in 1966.

Jack Bias of the Growers Shippers Vegetable Association said the market was about as high as it had ever been.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Peacock Gap Country Club Plans 'A Night In Vienna'

An interesting evening is being programmed for next Friday night by Peacock Gap Country Club.

Ordinarily Peacock Gap is open for dinner to the public only on Saturday and Sunday. But this is a special affair for which you will have to make advance reservations. It's called "A Night in Vienna."

Planned is an Austrian evening of gaiety, dinner, dancing and entertainment. Austrian consul general Karl C. Weber and his wife should be there. The German consulate may also be represented and there should be other distinguished guests.

Entertainment will include original gypsy music, zither and Schuhplattler groups. So I'm told you may come dressed in lederhosen, steyeranzug, the ladies in dirndles — or informal. A no-host cocktail hour begins at 7 p.m. with dinner at 8. Official opening of the ball is 9 —and thereafter music.

Chef Lars Eric Benson, though Swedish, is fully acquainted with the Teutonic dishes and among other delectibles is preparing roast pork, wiener schnitzel, Austrian dumplings, sauerkraut, salads, cheese and so on — all you can eat, served buffet style. A glass of wine is included with the meal.

Tab for the evening is $6 per person. You'll have to get your tickets in advance and these are limited. Talk to catering manager Louis Mason for further details.

NEW OFFICERS elected by the Marin Restaurant and Tavern Owners Association for the 1967-68 term commencing July 1 include Ben Farlatti at the helm again.

This is Tiburon Lodge's owner-manager's third year as president. Jim Bigelow of Sam's Anchor Cafe in Tiburon is vice president. Wayne Henninger of the Kettle in San Rafael is secretary-treasurer.

TIBURON'S Windjammer had been chosen by the judges of Institutions Magazine's 1967 annual awards program as outstanding in design, fabrication and function. Restaurants, hotels, hospitals, motels, clubs, schools, colleges and universities participate in this every year. Owner Ernie Van Asperen picked up his award at a recent dinner in Chicago.

Meanwhile Ernie is still promoting dinners at his Gold Street nightery in San Francisco. Latest addition to the menu is a small filet dinner at $3.75 — this has been a favorite in Tiburon.

ANOTHER WINE COURSE is being offered in Marin by Co-op Marin in Corte Madera. The first session will be next Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the co-op community room, 71 Tamal Vista Boulevard.

Six sessions are planned, running through Aug. 3. (Week of July 4 is eliminated). Subjects covered will include the processes of winemaking and principles of tasting; the wines of France, Germany and other parts of the world, including the eastern United States; the wines of California — and one evening devoted to sherry, port and other fortified wines.

Fred Cherry of San Anselmo, whose University of California-approved wine course at College of Marin recently was very well attended, is again giving instruction. Charge of $5 for the course includes wines for sampling.

Incidentally, I understand that Miz Brown's, restaurant planned for Marin Co-Op's second phase, will open in the fall.

IT DOESN'T SERVE canard a l'Orange, coquille St. Jacques, coq au chambertin or escargots bourgogne. But it's a nice little place to take the entire family for dinner without having to join Timeplan to pay for your spree.

So if Dad balks at a Father's Day dinner out this Sunday because he has to pick up the check, this might be a place to consider — the Boardwalk Restaurant in Tiburon.

I tried Jimmie Wong's veal scallopini the other evening and you can't tell me that he spent all his 12 years in the business in Chinese restaurants. Exclusive of broiler items, the range of entrees is from $1.95 to $2.75. Filets Mignon and New York cuts are $4.95.

Tiburon business people have been giving this place a pretty good run on breakfasts and lunches. There is a nice lunch choice of salads, hot, cold and club sandwiches.

More decorative and functional changes will be made here from time to time. The place lends itself to a decorator's touch.

DICK SALTZMAN'S DUO is now booked to play through most of the summer—June, July and August at Blue Rock Inn, Larkspur, on Friday and Saturday nights. This music seems to be well received — acoustics are best in the dining room.

WORKMEN WERE PLENTIFUL around the Pepperwood this week and the scene was one of organized confusion. But I doubt that this restaurant in the Red Hill Shopping Center, San Anselmo will get opened by the first of July. I hope I'm wrong.

Both dining room and lounge appear to be very attractively designed, and the atmosphere should be warm and comfortable.

CONGRATULATIONS to young Milan Prokupek Jr., manager of Inverness Lodge, on acquiring his United States citizenship.

FRANCHISED RESTAURANTS are the big thing in eating places these days. We have a handful in Marin and most of them have done well. So well that a few of the franchises have taken on more than one location. Witness the American Family Steak House — first in San Anselmo, and now also in the Montecito Shopping Center, San Rafael.

Scarcely a week goes by that new franchised food operations are not announced. For example, here are a few reported in the last month as getting under way in Northern California: Jumpin' Bean Restaurants, Inc.; Frostrop Western, Inc.; Deacon Jones International; Burger Pits, Inc.; Senor Taco, Inc. and Red's Tamales. Most of the franchised restaurants are specialty houses.

In addition, here are three places that recently announced their intent to open other branches: Bakers Drive-In, headquartered in San Bernardino; Hyatt Coffee Shoppe, Burlingame; Little Big Top, Sacramento.

Eventually you may see some of these names in Marin.

FANS OF BILL COSBY, co-star of "I Spy" on television and two-time Emmy award winner, will be able to see him in person June 24 in a one-time concert at San Francisco's War Memorial Opera House. Appearing with him will be RCA's "The Pair Extraordinaire."

Schools To Bulge

BRUSSELS (UPI) — The student population of Belgian universities is expected to double in the next 13 years. Estimates are that in 190 about 100,000 students will be registered at the universities, compared with approximately 51,000 at present.

Santa Venetia Awards Given

Awards for the outstanding boy and girl graduate of Santa Venetia Middle School plus a prize for the student with the highest scholastic record were presented last night at the school's commencement exercises.

Tim Gilbride of 36 Golden Hinde Boulevard, San Rafael, was given the Optimist Club award for the outstanding boy, and Anne Bettham of 12 Sussex Court, San Rafael collected the outstanding girl award from the Parent-Teacher Association.

The academic award, presented by the school's student body, went to James Lazarini of 140 Holmes Avenue, Santa Venetia.

Clerics Urged To Get Involved

STOCKTON (UPI)— The Rt. Rev. C. Kilmer Myers, Bishop of the Episcopal Dioces of California, has urged Methodist clergymen to become more involved "in the social struggles of our time."

Myers addressed more than 1,000 Methodist ministers and laymen last night at the 119th annual convention of the California-Nevada conference of the Methodist Church.

Myers urged the churchmen to "involve themselves with others in the social struggles of our times and to reflect on the theological meaning of this involvement."

He said the pattern of life he recommended could be contained in the words "involvement and reflection."

The Methodist conclave continues through Sunday.

Momument To Late Marinite

A monument to Mathilde Finkelstein, long-time social worker who lived in Marin for 36 years, will be dedicated in Chicago Sunday by her family.

Miss Finkelstein, a native of Rumania, was a social worker for 55 years, starting at Hull House in Chicago under founder Jane Addams and then for 35 years in San Francisco with the Jewish Family Service.

A resident of Fairfax, she died March 26, 1966, in Marin and was buried in Chicago.

Guilty Plea Made On Petty Theft

Edward F. Ulibarri, 32, pleaded guilty in Marin Municipal Court yesterday to a charge of petty theft, and Judge Peter Allen Smith sentenced him to jail time already served.

Ulibarri and John C. Benguidez, 32, both of San Francisco, were originally charged with burglary of Oxford Shop at Northgate Shopping Center May 24. Preliminary hearing for Benguidez is pending.

Wedding Day Ruse A Boon To Burglars

Parents of brides and grooms should beware phone calls saying a package will be delivered on the wedding day, the Better Business Bureau warned yesterday.

Burglars have been making such calls to make sure that no one will be at the house to receive packages. Then then burgle it during the wedding.

The bureau recommended notifying the police, or keeping someone home.

A more ghoulish practice of an unscrupulous company was reported by the bureau.

Shortly after a burial reported in death notices, the company sends COD packages to the deceased's relatives.

The bureau advised asking the firm to furnish proof the merchandise was ordered before accepting such COD items. If proof is not furnished, report it to the bureau at 414 Mason Street, San Francisco, or to the Post Office.

License Approved

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Unless written protest is filed, the Contractors State License Board announced today it will issue a license July 5 to Bernard P. Nerviani, 503 Adrian Way, Santa Venetia, for landscaping contracting.

Marin Firm Low For Signal System

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state Division of Highways yesterday opened bids for installing a flashing beacon and traffic signal system, and modifying highway lighting at the intersection of Tiburon Boulevard with the Redwood Highway frontage road, near Mill Valley.

L. H. Leonardi Electric Construction Co., San Rafael, was low bidder, asking $23,485 for the job.

22-Year-Old Indictment Is Finally Dropped

LOS ANGELES (UPI) —A county grand jury indictment against a Hollywood man—issued 22 years ago but never served—was dismissed yesterday in superior court.

Richard D. Rochester, now 54, had been charged with election code violations stemming from his unsuccessful bid for a seat on the Board of Education in April, 1945.

Rochester, accused of falsely claiming to have witnessed signatures affixed to his nominating petition, later moved to Lake Tahoe and finally to New York City.

He returned here a year ago and said he first learned of the indictment last month.

Judge Robert Feinerman said he was dismissing the indictment at the behest of the district attorney's office, which said bringing the case to trial would be prohibitively expensive.

Young Job Seekers Find That Clothes Makes Man

As June graduates begin looking for summer employment or permanent careers in their chosen fields, the rugged individualists among them are forced to comply to a certain extent with current "norms" set up by the adult Society in manner and dress.

Job opportunities and salaries are as good as or better than those faced by last year's graduates, according to surveys made by the Education News Service, published by the California Teachers Assn. But just as in past years, youths who insist on wearing long hair and offbeat clothes are killing their chances of finding employment.

A student employment supervisor in the San Mateo office of the State Department of Employment gave this explanation:

"We consider the appearance of the job seeker very important because appearance usually reflects the way a person will do his job. If graduates insist on looking like a hippie, their chance of getting a job is slim.

"Employers want to maintain a good image with the public, and they hire new personnel with a careful eye on how the public will react to their appearance."

Employers who reject bizarre clothing are not necessarily judging the ability of the job applicants on the basis of their outward appearance.

In the competition of free enterprise, employers must cater to the needs and desires of the public in general.

Even though an employer may have no personal aversion to hiring youths with beards, long hair, or bead necklaces, he is forced to give first consideration to public acceptance.

A non-conformist youth who is turned down repeatedly by employer after employer should not take the rejections as a personal affront.

Employers who might gladly accept a person on his true worth, rather than on the outer garb, cannot afford the luxury of flying in the face of customer preference.

From practical necessity, then, most employers will look for the clean-shaven and the conventionally dressed.

Until and unless the beards, long locks, and sandals win greater social acceptance, the young job seeker would be wise to suppress some of his individual tastes and conform to norms set up by employers in his field.

"Me a hippie? . . . Never! But you just try and find a job with this kooky outfit on."

LOSS OF RIGHTS IS NO FUN

These are the words of an 11-year-old girl: "I felt like I wasn't worth anything when everybody turned away from me."

She and 34 classmates had just taken part in "Project Misery" at an elementary school of the Air Force Academy in Colorado. The purpose was to show the youngsters what prejudice really means.

The teacher who conceived the project first secured permission from the students' parents.

For a week some of the young people were made to sit in the rear of the school bus, eat at separate tables in the lunchroom and were not allowed to play with the rest of the student body.

When their rights were finally restored, the students reacted with relief. Said one: "I was sure happy to talk to my friends again . . . even to those I don't like."

Rights are given us by God and protected by government. They entail the obligation to respect the liberty and equality of others.

"Continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed." (2 Timothy 3:14)

Make me appreciate my freedom, Lord, by standing up for just treatment for every one of Your children.

Local Campaign Launched To Push Kennedy-Fulbright Team

By WAT TAKESHITA

Takeshita

A San Anselmo insurance man, who graduated from the theological seminary in 1960, heads the Marin County chapter of Citizens for Kennedy-Fulbright.

He is William M. Taylor, 33, of 185 The Alameda, who has been trying to drum up support for Sen. Robert F. Kennedy of New York and Sen. J. W. Fulbright of Arkansas since last March.

Six chapters, including the one in Marin, have been organized throughout the state. Their aim is to induce Bobby Kennedy to run for president, with Fulbright as running mate or possibly secretary of state.

REMEMBER GERALD Hill, the young Marin Lawyer who moved to San Francisco and now heads the California Democratic Council?

He just returned from a "Pacem In Terris" conference in Geneva, where more than 300 delegates from 60 countries gathered to discuss world coexistence. Hill was one of three Californians invited to the conference by the sponsors, The Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions.

The other two were former Gov. Edmund G. Brown and Congressman George E. Brown Jr. of Los Angeles.

Delegates from East and West Germany met in the first public confrontation, reports Hill. Representatives from South Vietnam showed up, but not the North Vietnamese, who had also been invited.

A NEW NAME is being mentioned as possible candidate for supervisor in the third district (South Marin): Ben Farlatti of Tiburon Lodge.

Farlatti is a newcomer to politics but an oldtimer in the county. He attended schools in the county, is active in the Visitors Bureau, and helped spearhead the drive for the motel-hotel tax.

If Farlatti runs, it would be against Supervisor Peter Behr, unless Behr goes for the Legislature or Congress.

CHARLES MICHALS, chairman of the Marin Republican Central Committee, is leaving no stone unturned to interest youth in the Republican organization. The GOP Youth Advisory Council plans to start a series of youth clubs at various schools, with a pilot project at one of the campuses as a starter.

John S. Russell of Kentfield has been appointed as one of the leaders of the youth club program.

The GOP will have a booth at the coming Marin Art and Garden Fair to promote Republicanism in general and attract young GOP in particular.

OUR GIs WOULD start getting more butter and less margarine, if the Petaluma Chamber of Commerce has its way. Owen Fredericks, president of the Petaluma Chamber, is asking Congressman Don Clausen and our two U.S. senators to get military installations to use more butter.

Speaking in behalf of the dairy industry, Fredericks charges that the use of margarine in government food service facilities is hurting the dairy industry.

National Anthem's Playing Is Praised

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Friday night (June 9) we listened with pleasure to Terra Linda High School's music concert under the able direction of Mr. Gordon Lowe. The band's performance was at its usual high level of excellence.

To our gratification, the "Star Spangled Banner" was played during the program. Not too mnay years ago, the national anthem was an accepted part of any public program, as it still should be. Nowadays, it is heard regularly only before the play of a San Francisco Giant game. . . . We are (hopefully) not so indifferent or sophisticated a people that we cannot express through music a measure of respect to our country, especially during these days when our country's flag is desecrated not only abroad, but also at home.

It would be praiseworthy and patriotic for all public (especially school) functions to once again include our national anthem as a vital part of their programs.

Let's Keep Our Fairfax Small

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Everyone says they want to keep Fairfax a small town. Some people say leave it the way it is. But people are selling their property and new buildings go up. So how do you keep the town the way it is without some kind of planning ahead?

In California where the people don't care or don't plan, the town becomes a solid block of apartment houses and freeways, if they live as near as we do to a big city. And this means higher taxes because more schools and police and firemen are needed.

No one wants this to happen to Fairfax. Everyone is glad it is small enough to be friendly. It's small enough to need everyone's help to keep it a great place to live. We can work out our differences because we all want the town to be a success. More people who care about taxes, appearances and good planning in Fairfax are needed to speak out and appear at city meetings.

Retired Writer Hits Continuing Raises

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Have enclosed news item taken from Friday's (June 9) I-J, which is only one of a great many appearing in your paper telling of salary raises for practically all state, county and city employees, to say nothing of school teachers and other school employees, and have wondered if you have no comment to make editorially or otherwise in the I-J regarding this very generous attitude of our supervisors in granting this never-ending salary and wage increases to every employee on the county payroll.

If we are ever going to see any reduction of taxes, doesn't there have to be some limit set by someone, rather than this yearly (and sometimes a few months) increase to everyone at the taxpayers expense? Where is the average taxpayer supposed to get this money to pay all of these raises and why is it all such raises are given without the taxpayers evidently having anything whatever to say regarding his or her opinion as to the necessity of such excessive salary raises.

Not so many years ago, one-half of present salaries would have been considered more than sufficient and such raises as have been given in the past few years have made the "cost of living" much higher for everyone concerned. My own opinion of our present "high cost of living" is that it has mainly been caused by union and other employees constantly demanding and being granted raises in wages and salaries every few months. I am in the unfortunate position of being too old to work or having any way whatever to increase my income, but must by paying higher and higher taxes each year, contribute to the higher pay of everyone who demands more money.

Hope to get a comment soon in your valuable paper.

I'm Just A Lonely Mutt

Editor, Independent-Journal:

You don't know me for I'm just another mutt. I have a tan and white coat with medium length hair. I'm not very big either, about 14 inches tall I'd guess. I do have pretty big eyes and lovely pointed ears, so I am told. I'm quite sensitive and love both children and adults — in fact I need them very much.

I guess that's my real problem for I am lonely and still looking for my family. Last Sunday we were riding in a dark blue Mustang convertible. It was lots of fun because we had the top down.

Something strange happened and I still don't know what to do. They let me out at the corner of Hoag and Canal Street in San Rafael but kept on going. I chased after them. Playing is lots of fun. Soon I had to stop because my heart was beating fast and my feet were sore.

My heart still hurts, but for a different reason. I never found my loved ones. Maybe they got lost. Anyway, I'll keep looking until I know they're safe.

Another mutt, obviously paranoid, told me I was abandoned and that people were cruel. I told him that it was not so because if you love people with all of your might, they will love you and take care of you. Won't they?

School Loses A Good Donor

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Some time ago a notice was in the I-J that the Richardson Bay School's Spanish class was holding a book sale to help finance a trip to Mexico.

I called the school for more information and whoever answered the telephone said she had no information about it and I would have to talk to the Spanish teacher, who was in class at the time.

I left my telephone number and said I would be in until one o'clock. And that was all I ever heard. I could have given a good many books, and also had in mind to give a small donation.

My only reason for writing is to suggest that others planning similar projects should give at least some information to whomever is in charge of the telephone at a school, if they hope for a response from the public.

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

INSIDE THE gorilla house of a West Coast zoo a sign hangs between two of the cages. It reads, "You are looking at the most dangerous animal in the world. It alone of all the animals that ever lived can exterminate (and has) entire species of animals. And now it has mastered the ability to wipe out all life on earth.

Beneath the sign hangs a mirror.

RICHARD BURTON on the subject of his wife — a girl you may have heard of named Elizabeth Taylor: "Liz is a great charmer — cajoling, flattering, and crafty. There is no guile of hideous scheme known to women she is unable to employ. . . . She's extremely beautiful, but there ARE a few flaws in the masterpiece: She has an insipid double chin, her legs are too short, and she has a slight pot-belly. . . . She's one of those women who thinks if she is 15 minutes late she actually is being half an hour early. . . . She has total blazing honesty. She cannot tell a lie. . . . Our marriage is one continuous excitement." RICHARD LOVES LIZ!

"DUCKS MAY be dumb," Will Rogers used to say, "but they don't pay fancy prices for guns so they can sit freezing in dreary marshes before sunup in the fall watching men fly south for the winter!"

Russia Unlikely To Help Form Workable Peace In Middle East

WASHINGTON — There is this theory on the Middle East crisis: the Soviets certainly helped avoid war at this time.

This, I am convinced, is dangerous and wishful fiction which will get us in trouble if we don't watch out.

The premise on which this wishful idea is being built is that the Soviets deliberately decided that they would rather work with the U.S. to contain the conflict than to help Nasser win.

THE HOPE BEHIND this view of Moscow's role in the Middle East crisis is that the Soviet government will join with the West in encouraging the Arabs to adopt a policy of peaceful co-existence with Israel.

It seems to me that what has happened thus far does not bear out this premise or give much substance to this hope.

I believe that the controlling facts are these:

By every device at its command — massive military aid, substantial economic assistance, plus total diplomatic support for the Arabs and total hostility to Israel — Moscow gave Nasser the go-ahead in his announced plan to destroy Israel. Was this detente? Was this Moscow's way of cutting back the cold war? Hardly. It was the most dangerous cold war venture since Khrushchev tried to secrete missiles in Cuba.

WAS THE SOVIET Union holding any check-rein on Nasser and on what he would do with the help he was getting from Moscow? Was the Soviet Union thinking all along on how well it could cooperate with the U.S. to avert war or to contain it if it broke out? There is no such evidence. The evidence, as reported by Robert H. Estabrook, United Nations correspondent of the Washington Post, is that Soviet military equipment, especially spare parts, was being poured into Cairo on the very eve of the war, thus seeking to make sure that the Arabs would not run out of supplies as the fighting progressed.

Numerous news stories suggest that because Premier Kosygin told President Johnson over the hot line on the day fighting started that he wanted to cooperate with the U.S. in restraining the belligerents, this meant that the Soviets put the highest premium on keeping the peace.

It is wiser to judge Soviet policy on the basis of its actions than on its words. The Soviets did not restrain the Arabs; only Israel restrained the Arabs.

Some suggest that because Moscow finally supported a U.N. call for a cease-fire without any Israeli pullback, this meant that the Soviets were acting with great prudence and eagerness to avert a spreading conflict.

THIS CONCLUSION is unproved because the Soviets opposed the U.N. calling for a cease-fire in the earliest stages of the war when it appeared that Nasser could win and accepted it only when it became clear that Nasser was losing.

The conclusion that Moscow was ready to work with the U.S. to contain the fighting is unproved because the necessity for doing so never arose. Israel won the war so quickly that the danger of the U.S. and the USSR being drawn into it never developed and therefore the events of the past week cast little light on how prudently Moscow would have acted under different circumstances.

OBVIOUSLY THE Soviet Union wants no direct military confrontation with the U.S. and most certainly does not want world war. But the truth is that it helped start a war between Egypt and Israel, did nothing to contain it until Egypt was at the point of collapse, and therein showed that it was prepared to take the most perilous risk of starting a conflict it couldn't stop.

It would be a welcome dividend if Moscow decided to work for peace instead of conflict in the Middle East. But the record shows we had better not count on it.

Kennedy Excused In Otepka Probe

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The secret State Department hearing on Otto Otepka, the former chief security evaluation officer, is taking a unique turn.

Irving Jaffe, the Justice Department prosecutor, has blocked a move to involve Sen. Robert Kennedy, D-N.Y., in the prodeedings.

Otepka's attorneys asked for permission to call John F. Reilly, the former deputy assistant secretary of state for security and a close friend of the senator, to question him on Kennedy's role in drafting charges brought against their client.

RATHER THAN AGREE to the appearance of Reilly, who had been involved in the bugging of Otepka's phone, Jaffe dropped 10 of the 13 charges once offered as justification for Otepka's dismissal.

The action of Jaffe has temporarily blocked Reilly's appearance, since the latter had nothing to do with the remaining charges against Otepka.

According to Otepka's friends, the security officer's troubles began during the Kennedy Administration when he challenged the procedure of waiving security checks for hundreds of State Department employees, including Dr. Walt Rostow, now the chief foreign policy adviser in the White House.

A SHOWDOWN IN the Rostow case came when Otepka was summonded by then Attorney General Kennedy, who demanded a waiver be granted the former professor. At the time Rostow was being cossidered for a high State Department post.

After Otepka balked, Rostow was appointed by President Kennedy to a position in the White House after another security officer granted clearance.

The Otepka hearings, underway for more than a week, are being held behind closed doors at the State Department at its request. Otepka's attorneys have vigorously protested this blackout, claiming the proceedings should be open to the public.

Of the charges brought against Otepka, only those accusing him of giving confidential papers to J. G. Sourwine, chief counsel of the Senate Internal Security subcommittee, remain.

OTEPKA'S DEFENSE claims the only unauthorized information he supplied the subcommittee was material disproving the testimony of Reilly and other witnesses against him.

Elsewhere the Senate Ethics Committee "expects" to take a close look at the charges against Senator Edward Long, D-Mo., after the present Sen. Thomas J. Dodd censure case has been disposed of.

Recently press accounts claimed Long was paid $48,000 in "referral" fees by an attorney representing convicted Teamster boss James Hoffa. Long acknowledged receiving the money, but contended it was proper payment for legal service. There are reports further disclosures will be forthcoming.

INFORMALLY ETHICS Committee members have exchanged views on the charges against Long. That is as far as they have gone. After the Dodd case is out of the way, the committee will formally deliberate what to do, if anything, about Long.

In the meanwhile its staff is "studying" the matter.

Stir Up Some Opposition—And Win Tough Civic Bond Elections

The remarkable victory of Mill Valley School District's 3.5 million bond measure — despite opposition of two trustees — suggested to Mel Wax, Sausalito mayor, that the way to get approval of the council's plan for a waterfront library would be to have two councilmen oppose it.

Bond measures are frail things, proponents of the school bonds argued, and dissent among the trustees could only hurt them. So much for the wisdom of predicting elections.

The novel stratagem worked in Mill Valley, so perhaps even in Sausalito it could work. A whole new science could be developed picking dissenters who would create the most backlash in favor of bonds.

SAUSALITO City Mgr. George M. Patterson has chapped elbows.

The item is that he got them crawling around his living room rug working on the budget. Police Chief Ed Kreins also found himself sprawled on the rug working on his department's budget.

Patterson said he offered to let Kreins sit on the couch, but the chief objected that from up there he couldn't see what Patterson was doing to his budget.

The city manager also has a dog and a cat, both of whom found the budget interesting. Maybe Patterson should budget a larger desk for himself. Or a softer rug.

THIS REPORTER is not in the "Bouquets and Brickbats" business, but at least a flower should be given Mill Valley's city engineer, Stanley Bala.

At the peak of the recent rain storm, Bala went out to inspect the East Blithedale widening project, and found that a temporary dam to keep out tide water was, instead, keeping rain water from draining into the Bay.

Without a thought of the new suit he was wearing, Bala jumped out of his car, grabbed a shovel and went to work digging a break in the dam. His quick work saved the project from further damage, and streets in the area from further flooding.

Maybe he should only get half a flower. After all, he confided, "engineers don't wear very expensive suits."

ANNE BLEYLE, 15-year-old Mill Valleyan, also should get a flower. She had saved $80 from baby sitting, and bid the entire amount on a calf in the KQED auction.

The 3-month-old calf was sold for $150, but the high bidder did not come through, so it was delivered last week to Anne's front lawn. Anne's mother did not know how much the calf weighed, but said, "It stepped on my foot, and it's (her foot) all black and blue."

For a while, Anne kept the calf in a dog pen, then shifted it to a chicken coop. Her mother did not seem pleased.

MILL VALLEY American Legion Post 284 this week awarded a citation for meritorious service to Frank Baptiste of Sausalito. Baptiste, a retired carpenter, has faithfully raised the Stars and Stripes at his home on every occasion for many years, the Legion said.

Baptiste is 96.

TAMALPAIS High School's newspaper, after one try as the Peace Pipe, appeared last week under its old name, the Tamalpais News. School administrators said they had nothing to do with the return to the straight and narrow, but the cub staff apparently got the message.

Mill Valley Parks and Recreation Department has printed 4,000 copies of its summer programs, with details on supervised playgrounds, classes and sports. They are available at City Hall, the Chamber of Commerce and Community and Youth Center.

ART BUCHWALD

But Did They Really Know Israel 'Bugged' Conversation?

WASHINGTON — It was reliably reported last week that Israel listened in on telephone conversations between President Nasser and King Hussein while the war was going on. This, of course, was a violation of the Middle East antibugging laws, and we can expect the Soviet Union to bring it up in no uncertain terms at the United Nations.

While the Israelis published one such conversation that they heard, there were others that took place during those four fateful days. I heard the tape of one the other day, and while I can't swear to its authenticity it certainly sounded like Nasser and Hussein to me.

IT WENT LIKE this:

Hussein: "Gamal, my brother and true defender, what the hell have you done to me? You made me lose Jerusalem, Bethlehem and all the land west of the Jordan."

Nasser: "Well, nobody's perfect."

Hussein: "I am not criticizing you, O hero of the Arab world and valiant conqueror of the Gulf of Aqaba, but that little piece of paper I signed with you last week also made me lose the Arab legion."

Nasser: "Little king, do not despair. There is still much we can do."

HUSSEIN: "Such as what, O mighty prophet of the Sinai?"

Nasser: "Well, you can burn down the American Embassy for a start. I always find when I lose a war that there's nothing like a good embassy fire to make people forget."

Hussein: "A good idea, O god of the Gaza. I shall burn down the U.S. Embassy. Anything else?"

Nasser: "Then you must resign."

Hussein: "But, savior of the Suez, how can I resign?"

Nasser: "It is the only thing to do, my tiny sovereign. If you don't resign, the people will scream for your resignation. But if you do they will shout for you to stay."

Hussein: "How do you know this, O wise one?"

NASSER: "This isn't the first time I've lost a war."

Hussein: "How true. You are known on everyone's lips as the loser of all time."

Nasser: "Now you flatter me."

Hussein: "True leader of the Arab bloc, tell me, how do I explain the loss of Jerusalem to my people?"

Nasser: "Tell them American marines and British commandos wrested the city from your brave soldiers while the Israeli dogs cringed in their foxholes until the ceasefire was sounded."

Hussein: "Of course. Why didn't I think of that?"

NASSER: "Obviously you've never lost Jerusalem before. You see, my fragile monarch, it isn't how you fignt a war that counts, but what you say afterward that is important. Look at me. The Israelis took Gaza, the Sinai, Aqaba, and they are sitting on the Suez Canal. Yet the latest poll shows my popularity is at an all-time high."

Hussein: "If you had only lost Cairo you would live forever."

Nasser: "Say, by the way, Arab brother, I'm drawing up a new defense pact with Jordan. How about coming over this week to sign it?"

Hussein: "O glorious deliverer, to think you still want to protect me after what you've done already."

Nasser: "Hush, now. What good is a great UAR army if it cannot offer assistance to a little friend?"

HUSSEIN: "How can I ever repay you?"

Nasser: "Could you loan me the use of an airplane until Thursday?"

COUNTY COMMENT

By WILLIAM D. (BILL) FUSSELMAN

Placement Of Responsibility Needed In The Administration

Fusselman

Capricious arrogance seems to best describe the administration and conduct of some of our county government.

During the weeks I was writing about highway development and Route 17, considerable self restraint was necessary to keep from dropping that subject to discuss some of the fantastic capers that were emerging from the fog around our "Brasilia of Marin"—way out there.

Can you imagine a more petulant attempt to blame someone else for a self-evident personal responsibility, than southern Marin Peter Behr's. He spoke at a luncheon of the Marin Property Owners Association. The topic was the rising costs for local government. According to the news story in the I-J, he said much of the blame should "be put on the shoulders of the land holders, who have large acreages . . . don't improve it for industry . . . 90 per cent of the flat land (in Marin) is spongy and needs fill." He urged property owners to fill and develop for Industrial Parks, asserting that industry wants to be able to move in on land which is prepared for it.

Even though this charge was petulant, unfair and incorrect, he more than anyone in county government has been responsible for any unfilled low bog land. If the records are checked, you will find he led the movement against excavations.

I WOULD NOT challenge property control nor do I like to see great scars across the beautiful hills I've delighted in since long before he made the local scene. However, it would be interesting to know just where land holders would find the fill to correct the conditions he scolds and orates about.

There is a continual, somewhat unseen cost of county government that he is responsible for, as well as the large and vital one that burdens us daily from morning til night.

WHEN HE MAKES a speech during a board meeting, demanding to know why we don't have wild turkeys to hunt out in West Marin which causes effort and time consumption of local departments and, in turn, state departments, plus hearings in his throne room, when he does these things he is adding substantial costs to county government . . . substantial, because there is a constant stream of these headline hunting activities . . . Return of Ferrys . . . Hovercraft for Commuting . . . Reckless Cutting Through Quiet Neighborhoods for Bus Lanes . . . and what have you.

He received extensive headlines (wonderful if one should be contemplating an election campaign) when he at every opportunity advocated that North Marin commuters use the Richmond-San Rafael bridge and a dog leg viaduct over the shallows to the Bay Bridge into San Francisco.

RECENTLY A Marin County commuter has tested this out and finds that it is both longer, takes more time and is more expensive.

Puppetry Classes

Mrs. Greta Nelson, who has taught puppetry in Stockholm, Sweden, will teach two classes in puppetry starting Monday at the Novato Community House. The classes, for boys and girls eight years and up, will be taught on Mondays and Wednesdays from 1 to 3 and from 3 to 5 p.m., sponsored by the Novato Parks and Recreation Department.

Art, Garden Fair's Judge Panel Listed

Judges for the 1967 Marin Art and Garden Fair, "Fiesta del Verano," June 30 through July 4, were named today by Mrs. Marcelle B. McCoy, Manager.

Model garden judges will be Garrett Eckbo, architect, Eckbo Dean Austin and Williams, David Arbegast, landscape architect, Theodore Osmundson and Associates, both of San Francisco, and Kathryn Stedman, landscape architect, of Woodside.

Norvell Gillespie, plant authority and television personality, Harry Nelson of City College of San Francisco and Ari Inouye of the University of California will judge plant material.

Flower arrangement judges will be Mrs. Chesley Ferguson and Mrs. Ralph Byington, San Jose; Mrs. Donald Nicholson, San Francisco, and Mrs. Robert Busher, Mrs. Danforth Field and Mrs. Eva Newman all of Hillsborough.

Mrs. Noel Gaubert of Danville will judge cut flowers and Richard Straw, Marin County agricultural commissioner, will judge the horticulture. Mrs. Esther McDonald of Fairfax will judge junior arrangements.

Photography judges are: Geoffrey Fricker of Fair Oaks, Thomas Johnson of Fairfax and Gustav H. Frenkel of San Anselmo for prints; E. A. Cadogan, Kentfield, Alice Anderson, Berkeley and Tony Martin of San Rafael for color slides.

Decisions on the Bay Area art and crafts show, already judged, were made by Gerald Nordland of the San Francisco Museum of Art and Mrs. Lois Ladas of Museum West, San Francisco.

Fourth Of July Family Day Set

A Fourth of July family day and steak barbecue are planned by the Woodacre Improvement Club.

Activities will start at 1 p.m., according to activities chairman Rodney Thorsen.

Subdivision To Be Studied

The Marin County Planning Commission Monday will consider a proposed large-lot subdivision on Lucas Valley Road east of Nicasio, and try to decide what should be done about an excavation by Francis Gelardi for a service station at Tamalpais Junction south of Mill Valley.

The commission will meet at 9 a.m. at the Civic Center.

Frank S. Soares has proposed the 9-lot subdivision on the Bull Tail Ranch, two miles east of Nicasio. None of the lots would be less than 20 acres.

The Gelardi excavation was earlier approved by the commission with requirements for retaining walls and landscaping. However, the service station has not been built and the requirements have not been met.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

A Good Bridge Player Will Never Give Up The Cause

It's very difficult to make bricks without straw, as the Israelites pointed out a few thousand years ago.

If you don't even try, however, you will never solve the housing shortage.

Opening lead -- ♠ 6

East took the first trick with the ace of spades and returned a spade to the king.

South led out the ace of hearts, hoping for a doubleton K-Q.

Nothing miraculous happened on the ace of hearts, and South eventually lost two trumps and two spades.

Down one.

South complained that he couldn't take a trump finesse without some trumps in dummy, but he was quite wrong.

The opponents would have come to his rescue if he had played the hand properly.

RUFF DIAMONDS

After taking the king of spades South should lead a diamond to the ace and ruff a diamond.

He continues with the king and queen of clubs and then ruffs another diamond.

Next comes a club to the ace and a third diamond ruff.

South gets out of his hand with a spade, needing only two more tricks.

His last three cards are the A-J-10 of hearts, and South is sure of his contract no matter which opponent wins the spade trick.

If East is in and returns a trump, South can take a finesse with the 10 of hearts. West can win, but must then yield the last two tricks to South's A-J of trumps.

♣ A Q 5 2

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid three diamonds.

The hand is slightly too strong for a jump to three spades.

The jump in a new suit is a stronger hint that the combined hands may be good enough for a slam.

French Farmers Don't Fancy Bright Lights

BORDEAUX, France (UPI) —France apparently has no trouble keeping 'em down on the farm instead of going to gay Paree.

A poll of about 500 delegates to a recent congress of the National Rural Family Confederation showed 94.7 per cent wanted to stay on the farm or in small villages. The reason? Mainly to have "direct contact with nature and to keep the freedom and independence that would be lost in larger cities."

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, June 16, the 167th day of 1967 with 198 to follow.

The moon is between its first quarter and full stage. The morning star is Saturn. The evening stars are Venus, Mercury, Mars and Jupiter.

Born on this day in 1903 was American soprano Helen Traubel.

On this day in history:

In 1871, the Ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine was set up in New York City by Dr. Walter Fleming.

In 1933, President Roosevelt signed the National Industrial Recovery Act.

In 1955, riots broke out in Buenos Aires as the Argentine Navy tried unsuccessfully to oust Premier Juan Peron.

In 1963, Russia put its first woman into space, Valentina Tereshkova.

A thought for the day — Plato once said: "Of all the animals the boy is the most unmanageable."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Light-face type indicates a.m. times; bold-face type indicates p.m. times.

LAST FAREWELL TO OLD SCHOOLHOUSE

Public schools throughout Marin closed for the summer yesterday. Among those bidding happy farewells to classrooms were pupils at Short School, San Rafael. For those who attended in this old building of the school, it was a last farewell. The schoolhouse built 62 years ago, will be abandoned and demolished because it does not meet Field Act earthquake-resistance specifications. (Independent-Journal photo)

Gallinas Village Rec Plans Ready

Directors of the Gallinas Village Community Services District last night agreed that one of the first events of the summer recreation program, starting next week, will be cleanup of the lot at Rosal and Adrian ways so it can be used for baseball and other games.

Registration for the two-month recreation program will open Monday. The cleanup will probably be Tuesday, district secretary Marguerite Clark reported.

Directors agreed to meet in July and August at the house the district has rented at 816 Hacienda Way next to Pueblo Park, rather than at John MacPhail School.

St. Rita's Pupils Win Clean Up Contest

St. Rita's School, Fairfax, has won the home check list contest run in connection with the city's Clean Up-Paint Up-Fix Up Campaign. Students returned the largest percentage of check lists indicating projects completed.

A "Count the Beans in the Bottle" contest has been won by Tom Knight, Arthur E. Perry and Tom Hamm.

Youth, 25, Committed After A 'Bad Trip'

Michael James Beaudway, 25, of 2015 Bridgeway, Sausalito, was committed last night to Napa State Hospital by Sausalito police after a "bad trip," apparently on LSD, in the parking lot of the Spinnaker Restaurant.

Police were called at 10:30 p.m. by Robert Strebeigh, Independent-Journal reporter, when he heard cries for help coming from the restaurant lot. The lot is about 500 feet from his boat at Sausalito Yacht Harbor.

Strebeigh's brother, Woodruff, went to help and found Beaudway stripped to the waist, thrashing about and crying for help. He calmed Beaudway. However, when police arrived with lights and siren on, Beaudway went berserk, struggled with Strebeigh, then took off his pants and ran around the parking lot crying for help.

The officers subdued him after a brief struggle.

Police Chief Edward S. Kreins said a cellophane bag of a substance believed to be marijuana was found on the hood of Beaudway's car, which was found parked two blocks away.

A pot of a substance believed to be marijuana was confiscated from Beaudway June 5, Kreins said. It has been sent for analysis to the state narcotics laboratory.

Suspected Drugs Found In Auto; Four Booked

Four men were booked in county jail yesterday by San Rafael police for narcotics investigation after four bundles of an unknown white substance and a hypodermic syringe were found in a cigarette box hidden under the dashboard of their car.

Rex Revere Hutchinson, 18, of 129 Canal Street, Apt. 105, San Rafael, and George Michael Stitlner, 20, of 724 Cherry Street, Novato, was booked on suspicion of narcotics possession. David Clark Knowlton, 18, of Sonoma and Rickey Craig Rosser, 18, with no known address, were booked on suspicion of possession of narcotics and narcotics paraphernelia.

Officer M. J. Conlin stopped the car, driven by Rosser, on Union Street between Fourth and Fifth streets at 4:30 a.m., first arresting Rosser for driving a vehicle without proper identification. Then the car was searched and the materials found. The men said the items did not belong to them.

Tracy's Estate To His Family

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Screen actor Spencer Tracy left his entire estate, estimated at more than a half-million dollars, to his widow and two children, it was disclosed yesterday.

The exact amount of the will, filed for probate in Superior Court, will be known only after an accounting is rendered.

The 67-year-old Tracy died last Saturday.

Longtime Friends Now Boast MDs

Two young men from the Tiburon Peninsula who have been friends and schoolmates since early boyhood, were graduated cum laude last Friday from medical colleges in different states.

Gary V. Dahl, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ottar Dahl, 696 Hawthorne Drive, Tiburon, was graduated from the University of Oregon medical school. He will start his internship June 27 at the university hospital.

Only one state away, Robert P. Watkins Jr., 26, will be an intern at the King County Hospital, Seattle, Washington. Watkins was graduated from Baylor University college of medicine at Houston, Tex. His parents are Dr. and Mrs. Robert P. Watkins of 50 San Rafael Avenue, Belvedere. Dr. Watkins is a former mayor of Belvedere.

Young Dahl and Watkins attended schools in Reed School District together and were graduated together from Tamalpais High School.

Lack Of Quorum Cancels Fire Board Session

Last night's meeting of the San Rafael Fire Commission — scheduled for discussion of fire protection provisions of a planned community development on Quail Hill — was canceled for lack of a quorum.

The fire commission was to have considered a recommendation by Fire Chief Vance Trivett that an access road for fire fighting equipment encircle an office complex planned for the hilltop west of Northgate Shopping Center. Trivett had suggested the road in the absence of Fire Zone 1 construction requirements.

The planning commission Tuesday called present Zone 2 requirements adequate and the road proposal unduly restrictive.

The matter will be discussed at the city council meeting at 8 p.m. Monday at city hall.

Tam Budget Will Hold Tax Line

The Tamalpais High School District board will have a public hearing on the district's tentative $7,803,500 budget for fiscal 1968 Monday at 8 p.m., in the district office.

District Business Director Frank A. Cassou said no change is expected in the district's tax rate. This year's budget totaled $7,586,996.

The board will receive the first report from the building needs advisory committee. The committee expects a final report by July 10, and has scheduled a special meeting July 17 to act on calling a bond election for the fall if necessary.

The board will consider a $4,570 contribution for a county-wide program of education on drugs, and a $2,700 contribution to keep the High Times student newspaper operating next year.

The board may approve 10 research grants of $500 each, and a pay increase for teaching aids will be considered.

A contract may be awarded for language laboratory equipment. Two bids were taken June 7. Millers Electronic Supply Inc. of Oakland was low bidder, at $3,593.23 for a 30-unit laboratory and $3,689.19 for a 36-unit laboratory. Education Technology Inc. of San Francisco bid $3,707.28 for a 30-unit laboratory and $4,229.78 for a 36-unit laboratory.

The board will have a closed session to consider employment of administrative personnel.

Charge Amended To Correct Address

A burglary charge against Gene Renal Toikka, 21, of 21 Elmwood Court, Novato, was amended in Marin Municipal Court yesterday after the district attorney's office learned a wrong address was given in the original charge yesterday.

Toikka was charged with entering the Bret Harte Beauty Salon at 97 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael. The charge originally said he entered a building at 371 Forbes Avenue, which is the residence of the beauty shop operator, Allia Alexandria Derkatch.

Too Excited To Note Interest

By MOLLY MARIN

Returned home from Europe after a rather "accidental" trip to Europe together are the Irving Chapmans and the Jack Blaines both of San Rafael. The Chapmans in planning their first trip were probably too excited to notice the unusual interest the Blaines took in their itinerary. Jack and Marion planned their secret trip and had their surprise meeting with their friends timed almost to the minute in Rome. The coup came off as Irv was taking a picture in the Coliseum and Jack stepped up behind him and asked him to turn around so he could get his picture. His look of surprise must have made a great photo. The foursome went on to tour other cities and flew home together from London.

TONIGHT IS THE big one for the six Marin girls who will bow at the San Francisco Debutante Ball at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel . . . Making their curtsies from a stage decorated as a Medici garden banked by 20 foot cypress trees will be Susan de Haro Abbott, daughter of the Frank Abbotts III of Kent Woodlands; Lisa Dollar daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold Dollar of Kent Woodlands; Cindy DuBain, daughter of the Myron DuBains of Kentfield; Linda Ferguson, daughter of the A. Barlow Fergusons of Kent Woodlands; Margaret Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin P. Webb of Kent Woodlands; and Kate Selby Young, daughter of Dr. Bradford Young of Belvedere and Mrs. Miriam Dodge Young of San Francisco.

Escorting the girls will be George Jeffrey Smith of Kentfield and Philip A. DeMaria of Ross with Susan Abbott; Greg Hampton of Riverside and Frederick Ferrin of Kentfield with Lisa Dollar; Eric Singleton and Joseph Bovill of San Francisco with Cindy DuBain; Gordon Hess of Kentfield and Drummond Pike of Ross with Linda Ferguson; Mark Bartlett of Palo Alto with Margaret Webb; and Mark Smith of Ross and Robert Skelton of San Francisco with Kate Young.

OTHER MARIN escorts are Michael Hofmann of Belvedere, Merritt L. Hewitt Jr. of Kentfield and Scott Leask of San Rafael. The ball is a benefit for the Presbyterian Medical Center.

Yesterday a tea at the Francisca Club was held to honor Lisa Dollar by Mrs. George Solari, and next Tuesday Debbie Dollar, another deb who is Linda Ferguson's cousin, will be the honoree at a luncheon and swim party at the A. Barlow Ferguson home in Kent Woodlands. On Thursday Mrs. Miriam Dodge Young will honor her daughter, Kate Young at a tea at her home in San Francisco. . . .

ARRIVING THIS week to spend the summer with the David J. Tirrells and daughters Connie and Angela at their summer home in Bolinas is Nancy Spreen, a recent graduate of Vassar.

A ROUND trip plane ticket to Guadalajara was the surprise graduation gift presented to Cleoni Tocalino by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Tocalino when they held a party at their home in Novato following her graduation from Dominican College. Mrs. Tocalino had made all the plans with Mrs. Cesar Flories, a former roommate of Cleoni's at Dominican who is now residing in Guadalajara and where Cleoni is a houseguest. Cleoni also hopes to stop off at Mazatlan for a few days on her way home.

CANDACE MORROW, daughter of Mrs. Mrs. Charles W. Mapes of Mill Valley, will leave on Saturday morning for Zurich, Switzerland, where she will be met by her sister, Marilyn, who's been attending the University of Bordeaux in France. Together the girls will pick up a car in Stuttgart for a three-month tour through Germany, Switzerland, Italy, the Netherlands, France and Spain. They'll visit cousins who operate a chateaux hotel in Murrin, Switzerland, before returning Sept. 21. Candy will then return to University of California at Santa Cruz and Marilyn will attend UC at Davis where she'll be a senior majoring in English.

A SURPRISE SPECIAL presentation was made Saturday at a Girl Scout court of awards by Cadette Girl Scout troop 1650 to Mrs. Joseph E. Bare Jr. of Mill Valley, troop committee chairman. She was honored with a gold disk for her contributions as a junior leader, organizer and acting leader last fall, and as a member of the association resource and referral committee. The Bares and their five children are leaving this month for two years in Connecticut, followed by three years in Belgium. They plan to return to Mill Valley, provided Mr. Bare's responsibilities as an attorney for Standard Oil permit.

LEAVING ST. JOHN'S Episcopal Church in Ross following their wedding on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Max Manfred Muller Jr. (the former Cathryn Jane (Cappy) Consta of Mill Valley). (Du Charme photo)

GOING CANNIBAL

Mike Shea is really in the stew as members of the San Francisco Yacht Club get ready for their annual Shipwreck Party to be held tomorrow night at the clubhouse. From left are Mesdames Walton Logan, William Hynes and John H. DeWitt. Hawaiian entertainment and a Polynesian dance troupe will be featured. Prizes for costumes will also be awarded. The evening will be a gay aloha for members of the club who will participate in the forthcoming Trans-Pacific Yacht Race. (Independent-Journal photo)

Sarmi Collection Laden With Jewels

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON

NEW YORK (AP) — If you're rich, you may wear your wealth this fall instead of banking it.

At Count Sarmi's collection opening Monday elegant manikins swept through his crowded showroom with their costumes so laden with gold or silver or so encrusted with gems that they could probably stand by themselves.

Some of the stones were phony, though you would have thought they were real by the dazzle—or by reading these garments' four-figure price tags.

The show began unostentatiously with high-waisted wool cuts and pale plaid suit costumes with pleated skirts.

However, by the time the basic blacks had arrived the first glitter of gold and silver was there in the skull caps the manikins wore. Not hats, they were wigs imitating the short, curly hair worn by the Greeks long ago.

Indeed, the Grecian influence was strong, with togas and one-shoulder dresses galore. Famed for his fluttering chiffons, and his simple crepes, Sarmi served up these too, in the show, along with dainty laces.

For the most part, however, the Italian count-turned-American designer could not resist sprinkling twinkle of sorts everywhere, even to the lame legs of his models.

Quilted velvets with dog collar gems and broadtail dresses and suits with sable and mink trims were opulence heavy enough to keep his clients warm in their drafty castles.

If the ladies were not foil wrapped in a metal brocade, they were tinseled with bands of dripping silver. Feathers, always a heady favorite with Sarmi, were among his flock of fashion entries. Still, these ostrich plumed capes or gowns were also made to sparkle with headlight sized gems nested within the feathers.

As if all this luxury were not enough, the designer compounded it by offering his rich customers reversible fur coats—a Russian broadtail, for example, that could be worn with its mink or sable side out for a change of style.

Sun's Rays Makes You Look Older—

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—You'll feel young in the sun, but too much of it will make you look old.

Overexposure to the sun produces prematurely weathered skin which is unattractive and can possibly lead to a health problem.

The California Medical Association says that skin exposed excessively to the sun's ultraviolet rays becomes dry and wrinkled and develops abnormal pigmentation and becomes thickened.

Take these tips for summer sunning:

—The sun is least damaging before 10 a.m. and after 4 p.m.

The fair-skinned, blue-eyed, light-haired person is especially susceptible to damage from the sun. But dark-skinned persons who tan easily can develop weathered skin as well.

—Ultraviolet rays generally do not pass through window glass.

—Do not apply oils, such as baby oil and olive oil, when you are exposed to the sun. They increase damage rather than prevent it.

Milton M. Hyams Claims Bride

Milton Mark Hyams of San Rafael claimed Holly Hildegarde Horgan as his bride in a ceremony on June 10 at Mission San Rafael Arcangel in San Rafael.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Horgan of San Rafael.

For her wedding the bride wore a floor length gown of white satin.

Patrice Horgan of San Rafael was maid of honor for her sister. Her gown was aqua blue chiffon over taffeta.

John J. Flynn Jr. of Salt Lake City, Utah, was ringbearer.

James Purcell of San Rafael served the bridegroom as best man.

A reception followed the ceremony at Dominic's Restaurant in San Rafael.

The bride was graduated from San Rafael High School and attended College of Marin. She is also the sister of Mrs. John Flynn of Salt Lake City, Edward E. Horgan Jr. of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Walter V. Ullner and Shawn Horgan of San Rafael.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus M. Hyams of San Rafael, was graduated from San Rafael High School, and the University of San Francisco School of Law.

The newlyweds will live in San Rafael.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Husband's Chances For Advance Hinge On Willingness To Move

DEAR HELEN:

My husband has a chance of getting a good paying job with a large company, doing work he likes, with chances of advancement. But it would mean that every two or three years we'd have to pull up roots and move. Our children would be changing schools, we'd have to make new friends; I'd have a hard time finding houses in decent neighborhoods.

My idea of marriage is "permanence," and the security of one town, school, church, group of friends, etc.

Is it right to deprive the family of permanent security? Or is it wrong to deprive my husband of the choice to grow in his career? Which? — CONFUSED MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER:

"Permanent security" is sometimes another name for boredom. My vote is for "upward mobility." Moving isn't all that rough: you make so many friends along the way. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

A word on behalf of people who own those maligned stamp machines that "have a mark-up of 20 percent." We had to put a stamp machine in our grocery store because people were constantly bothering us for stamps. Either we took time away from regular customers to provide them at cost, or we turned them down, which made them mad.

Many times these "stamp customers" bought nothing else, but they resented having to wait for service.

We don't get rich off our machine. It cost around $70, and I must buy the stamps at the post office, take time to fill it, see to repairs, so we just about break even. It's merely a convenience, and most people don't make a fuss about the "six-cent nickel." — SMALL TOWN STORE KEEPER

DEAR HELEN:

My wife uses our baby to get her own way. If I don't do what she wants, she mistreats him. I couldn't afford a new dress for her, so she put the baby on a diet — to save money. Now she wants a new house. So she scares me by grabbing the baby by the feet and twirling him around, and throwing him to the ceiling. Says the little house makes her nervous. Her idea is, what other weapon can you use against a man but his children?

One time she threatened to sit on him if I didn't take her out to dinner. She acts like a child, but she is in her 20s. If this keeps up she's bound to injure him, as I can't meet her every demand. For each "No," he gets a bruise. I'm about sick from worry.

How can I make her grow up? — L.M.K.

DEAR L:

To make sure your child will grow up, get your wife to a psychiatrist fast! And don't leave her alone with the baby until you get an expert's diagnosis. Your letter indicates "immaturity" isn't her biggest problem. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

You can get an unlisted phone number, but how do you get an unlisted address? I'm another one of these just-turned-50 people who resents the junk mail aimed at over-50s. Every day I get "geriatric" ads about supervitamins, hearing aids, false teeth gripping-glue, arthritis helps — and what I want to know is, whose business is it that I am now over the hump? It's bad enough to realize I'm 50 without having it rammed down my throat by a bunch of letter-writing salesmen.

Please print this gripe, and maybe some of those "old-age" promoters will get the idea and stop bothering us — YOUNG FIFTY

DEAR FIFTY:

Be glad to. Those "old age promoters" should know that receiving an "over-50" ad in the mail ages a woman ten years — especially when her gossipy neighbor sees her open the letter. — H.

Paperback Guide For Recreation Leaders Is Out

A new paperback guide for recreation leaders by Myrtle Edwards is published by the National Press, of Palo Alto.

The illustrated publication contains chapters on practical ideas and how-to-do-it steps for preschool recreation, story telling and reading, games, sports, handicrafts, hobbies, nature clubs, music, dance and special events.

Its author has guided children's activities in Bakersfield, Burbank and Los Angeles for nearly 30 years and has drawn on her experience with all ages of children to make a practical guide for leaders. The book contains 194 pages, with a handy reference index at the back.

Terra Linda P-TA Elects Kenneth Brown President

KENNETH BROWN

Kenneth Barne Brown of San Rafael, director of Marin County Weights and Measures Dept., is the new president of Terra Linda High School Parent-Teacher Association.

Ken and his wife, Dorothy, are the parents of Cheryl, who is a junior at Terra Linda, and have resided in Marin for 35 years.

During his 12-month membership in the organization, he has held the office of vice president. Projected club plans include the annual pancake breakfast usually held in March.

The new president, who was graduated from Tamalpais High College of Marin and Lassen College, is a member of the the State Association of Weights and Measures Officials. He also assists Dorothy with Terra Linda Valley Girl Scout troop activities.

Assisting Ken will be George Lagier of San Rafael, vice president; and Mrs. John Goldsmith, also of San Rafael, secretary.

Oates-Kopf Wedding Performed

Janet Carolyn Kopf became the bride of Dale Roderic Oates Saturday afternoon at the Mill Valley Community Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Walter M. Brown of Mill Valley, and the parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Oates of Santa Rosa.

When the bride was given in marriage by her stepfather, she wore a silk organza sheath gown trimmed in Alencon lace and pearls and with a chapel train.

Colette Salaun of San Francisco was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were the bride's sisters, Rayna and Kathryn Kopf of Mill Valley, and Mrs. Edward Rodriguez of Sausalito. They wore Empire gowns of pink chiffon.

Dean A. Oates of Los Angeles served as best man, and ushers were John P. Guenza Jr. of San Francisco, James Slaten of Novato and Edward Rodriguez of Sausalito.

After a reception at the Browns' home, the couple left for a honeymoon in Acapulco. They will live in Mill Valley.

The new Mrs. Oates is a graduate of Tamalpais High School and attended Sonoma State College and Heald's Business College. She is employed with her family at the Small World Travel Agency in Mill Valley. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. William E. Doud of Mill Valley.

A graduate of Petaluma High School and Santa Rosa Junior College, the bridegroom attended the University of Califorina Medical School and is employed with Ways and Means, Inc., pharmaceutical manufacturers in San Rafael.

He is the brother of Jene Oates of Panama and Mrs. George Connick of Portland, Me.

Rutkowski-Barber Nuptial Vows Said In Oregon Rite

In a ceremony on June 10 in the First Congregational Church in Eugene, Ore., Geoffrey Rutkowski of Tiburon claimed Joan Barber of Eugene as his bride.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. John L. Barber of Eugene.

For her wedding the bride wore a candlelight satin dress appliqued at the neckline and on the cathedral train.

Lynn Barber of Eugene was maid of honor and Mrs. Gordon H. Niedringhaus of Santa Ana was matron of honor. They wore mint green gowns with beige lace inserts. In gowns to match the honor attendants were bridesmaids Mrs. Prescott Rasmussen of Los Angeles, Patricia and Pamela Kuskey of San Francisco and Charlotte Tobin of Eugene.

Karen Niedringhaus of Santa Ana was flower girl.

Dr. Prescott Rasmussen of Los Angeles served the bridegroom as best man. Ushering guests were Robert Goettsch of Eugene, Gordon Niedringhaus of Santa Ana, Renn Harris of Portland, Michael McDowell of San Francisco and Richard Gabriel of Eugene.

A reception followed the ceremony at the church.

The bride was graduated from Willamette University and the University of Southern California. She was formerly on the faculty of Whitman College and in 1965 was regional winner of the San Francisco Opera auditions.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Rutkowski of Tiburon, was graduated from Willamette University and the University of Southern California. He is on the music faculty of the University of Nevada.

MRS. GEOFFREY RUTKOWSKI

Following a wedding trip to Victoria, B.C., the couple will reside in Reno.

Rivara-Takae Vows Solemnized

Gwendolyn Aiko Takae of San Leandro became the bride of Gary Paul Rivara of San Anselmo in a ceremony on June 3 at St. Rita's Church in Fairfax.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley K. Takae of San Leandro.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of white satin and lace.

Preceding the bride down the aisle in gowns of aqua chiffon were Katherine Rey Cablayan as maid of honor and bridesmaids, Sandy Coleman and Leslie Travis of San Anselmo.

Phillip Ostrander served the bridegroom as best man and ushering were his brothers Anthony and Pete Rivara of San Anselmo.

A reception followed the ceremony at the San Anselmo home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rivara.

The bride was graduated from Pacific High School. She is the sister of Mrs. Elaine Lum and Mitchell, Roxane and Patrick Takae of San Leandro.

The bridegroom was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and attended College of Marin. He is employed with the Castle Steel Co. Frank Rivara of San Anselmo is also his brother and he is the grandson of Mrs. Gilda Rivara of San Anselmo.

Following a Carmel wedding trip, the couple will reside in Piedmont.

Club's President A Flower Fancier

Leading the San Rafael Improvement Club this year is Mrs. Claude G. Bessellieu, who has lived in Marin for the past 38 years.

She and her husband, a senior map draftsman, are parents of a son, Capt. Burt T. Bessellieu, who is a bay pilot.

MRS. BESSELLIEU

Mrs. Bessellieu is an avid flower fancier and has been vice president of the Chrysanthemum Society of Marin, and she is also active in the Rose Society and Garden Society of Marin. Naturally, gardening is one of her favorite pastimes and she enjoys sharing the blossoms with the ill and shut-in persons.

The new president studied nursing for two years and has been president of the Marin Licensed Vocational Nurses Association.

Other interests of Mrs. Bessellieu are sewing and knitting, cake decorating and gourmet cooking, and spending time with her granddaughters, Cynthia and Mardine.

Other San Rafael Improvement Club officers are Mesdames John Camiccia, first vice president; G. V. Vander Hoogt, second vice president; William Howe, financial secretary; Art Abrahams, recording secretary; and Mesdames John F. McInnis, Albert Walz, Carl Riznik and J. J. Stickle, directors.

Heart Association Officer Has Variety Of Interests

Service to church, school and the Marin Heart Association are the community concerns of Mrs. Walter Nagel of Corte Madera. Her interest in schools puts her in the limelight just now, as she has been elected president of the Reed Union School District Parent-Teacher Club.

MRS. WALTER NAGEL

Ida Nagel is the wife of Lt. Col. Walter E. Nagel. The retired Army officer is Superintendent of Public Works for the city of Corte Madera. They have four children — Wally, 20, who is a sophomore at Pacific Lutheran University at Tacoma; Anita, 16, a sophomore at Redwood High School; Bill, 12, in the seventh grade at Del Mar School, and Jim, six, in Beta 2 at Granada School. The family has lived in Marin for eight years.

Mrs. Nagel has been active in the P-TC for seven years. She served as district secretary in 1960. She thinks the purpose of the organization is "To aid in the educational and recreational developments of the children of this district in an effort to help them become happy responsible citizens."

During the coming year the new president hopes to see use of parent volunteers increased. The club expects to continue support of the All Arts Festival, will assist with staffing the Village Salvage Shop, and continue the movie guide service.

She is active in the Marin Lutheran Church, and is on the board of directors of the Heart Association. In 1959 Ida was awarded an honorary life membership from the Washington Parent-Teacher Association. She received the Silver Medallion for meritorious service for her work with the Heart Association in 1964.

The new president was graduated from C. H. Yoe High School in Cameron, Tex., and attended business school in Cameron.

Family activities include swimming, camping, traveling, and boating. Ida says she enjoys "people, bridge and ping pong, — and travel. As an Army family, travel was quite exciting for 18 years, as we lived in Okinawa, France, visited most of Europe and the United States including Hawaii. We are happy to call Marin home!"

FOR MOON TRIP?

My! How times have changed! For space-age models, designer Paco Rabanne of London replaces the rustle of silk with the clank of metal in this creation fashioned of light-weight metal squares, held together with metal links. Completing the motif are triple silver shell earrings with a tiny diamond for sparkle.

President Of Sweet Adelines Enjoys Singing And Sewing

MRS. WAYNE LENHARD

Marin Sweet Adelines, Inc., has elected Mrs. Wayne Lenhard of Terra Linda to serve as its new president. She has been a member of Region 12, Sweet Adelines, since 1962 when she joined the Salinas "Green Gold Chapter." While a member of that group she sang as tenor in the quartet, "The Mink-Strels."

Since transferring to Marin in 1963, she has served as council member to Region 12 as Marin representative since 1964. She also represented Marin Chapter as delegate when the International Conventions were held in Berkeley in 1963, at Denver Colorado in 1965, and again in Houston Texas in 1966.

Evelyn's husband is head of the Lenhard Construction Co. in Marin. The mother of four, she has been employed for 14 years as an employee of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. Evelyn's great love for singing is not limited only to barbershop style. She has sung as soloist on special occasions for other groups. Her other interest besides her new home in Terra Linda is sewing. The Lenhards have recently moved to San Raael from Novato where they resided for the past two years.

Installed with Mrs. Lenhard were Sharon Raines, vice president; and Mesdames Dave Corstorphine, corresponding secretary; John Maillard, recording secretary; George Fletcher, treasurer; Carl Wolfe, parliamentarian; Jennings Lyons, historian; and Trevor Whitson, publicity.

Bridal Shower Honors Teacher

Elizabeth Cox, fourth grade teacher at Pleasant Valley Elementary School in Novato, was honored at a surprise bridal shower by students of her class on Wednesday. The class presented her with a silver tray.

Elizabeth will be married on July 1 at the University Park Methodist Church in Denver to John R. Brady. They will live in Portland, Ore., where Elizabeth will teach next school year.

Mrs. Duane Combe, room mother and Mrs. Eugene Rehfeld, assistant room mother, were in charge of arrangements.

FEATURED THIS SATURDAY

The thing that television seems to do the best is the documentary. A key man in the making of the documentary, of course, is the photographer. And one of the most skilled in the business is Dick Williams of San Francisco's KPIX-TV, a Novato resident. Tomorrow's Marin Magazine tells you how Dick Williams got into his profession, why he likes it, and how he goes about shooting one of those documentaries you enjoy on Channel 5.

Summer is the rodeo season in California. And Marin is host to one of the most colorful of those western shows as part of Novato's annual Western Week celebration. The 1967 Novato rodeo will be held this Sunday. To get you in the mood, your Independent-Journal weekend supplement tomorrow presents a portfolio of photographs taken by Al Sims at the 1966 event. It's a kaleidoscope of explosive action.

MARIN FILM FARE

Western Enlivened By Armored Wagon

By LES DARD

Plenty of good viewing is in store this fine weekend for all ages and tastes around Marin area theaters:

RAFAEL THEATER

Now on screen is a top-flight new western. It's called "The War Wagon," and features John Wayne, Kirk Douglas, Howard Keel, Robert Walker Jr., Keenan Wynn and Bruce Cabot.

The excitement concerns a fearsome black armored wagon mounted with a Gatling gun—used to transport gold in the 1870's—and an ingenious robbery attempt.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

A Western of a more arty sort is "A Few Dollars More."

This is the sequel to the much talked about film of some months back, "A Fistful of Dollars," it too, was made in Spain.

Clint Eastwood, once star of TV's "Rawhide" series, plays an unusual gunman who sees himself as a sort of avenging angel.

SEQUOIA THEATER

"The Happening" is a very contemporary story featuring Anthony Quinn, George Maharis, Michael Parks, Robert Walker Jr., Martha Hyer and Faye Dunaway.

Four young hedonists who flee a police raid on their all-night party, soon find themselves kidnapping prosperous community leader Quinn and demanding ransom. Only nobody seems to want him back.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

In "Crazy Quilt," writer-producer-director John Korty makes the scene with a fresh viewpoint.

Two young people marry. He's an annihilistic termit exterminator and she's a feet-in-the-air romantic. Things are bound to start popping, and they do—delightfully.

Co-featured is "Billy Liar," with Tom Courtenay and Julie Christie.

MOTOR MOVIES

"The Devil's Angels" is now playing.

Plenty of action and noise in this "close-up" look at outlaw motorcycle gangs, but the proximity to truth is often quite debatable.

Woody Allen patched together the co-feature—"What's Up, Tiger Lily?"—and as could have been predicted, it's wild.

101 DRIVE-IN

Fans of Elvis Presley tune in now for "Double Trouble," on screen here.

Presley plays himself on a Belgian tour. He finds himself pursued by both an older, sophisticated feminine admirer and a slightly under-age British heiress—not to mention a pair of comical crooks who are smuggling diamonds in his suitcase.

NOVATO THEATER

Dick Van Dyke stars in "Lt. Robin Crusoe," a different sort of entry for the Walt Disney team.

Van Dyke plays a Navy pilot who bails out over the Pacific and soon winds up on an island inhabited only by an astro-chimp of remarkable intelligence. They get on wonderfully and peacefully together until native-girl-in-exile Nancy Kwan shows up from another island.

FAIRFAX THEATER

Boris Pasternak's "Doctor Zhivago" is holding over here, beginning what is hopefully a very long run.

The vast story unfolds before a rich background that follows the birth of Soviet Russia.

Omar Sharif, Julie Christie, Geraldine Chaplin, Rod Steiger, Tom Courtnenay and Rita Tushingham star.

NORTHGATE THEATER

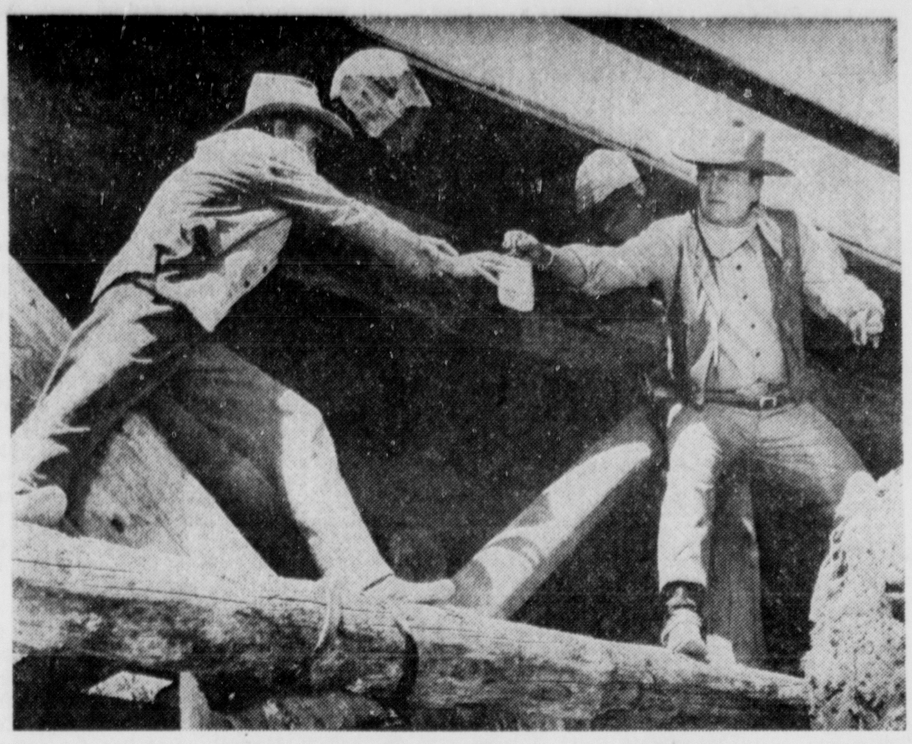
Held over is the film which won three Oscars and possibly deserved many more: "Zorba, the Greek."

Anthony Quinn plays Zorba, a Greek who loves life and savors every minute. Alan Bates costars as a young Englishman going to Crete to refresh his spirit.

LARK THEATER

Very highly acclaimed lately is the perplexing and rewarding new entry by famous Italian director Michelangelo Antonioni—"Blowup."

Filmed in English in mod London, it concerns a fashion photographer who confuses the world in his mind with reality. He gets involved in a murder mystery that is never solved, and never really needs to be. (Adults.)



PASS THAT NITRO—Robert Wagner and John Wayne walk the straight and narrow, but their aims are crooked as they plot to blow up a bridge in "The War Wagon," now playing at the Rafael.

Marinite Gets Commission Post

Melville Owen, 35, Kentfield attorney, was appointed today by Gov. Ronald Reagan to the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission.

Owen has been active in the Marin Republican Council and was on the Marin County Reagan Committee in the 1966 campaign.

Cash Stolen

Employees at the Consumer Co-operative Grocery Store, 71 Tamal Vista Boulevard, Corte Madera, told police yesterday that $500 in cash was taken from a check-stand drawer Wednesday.

More Portable Classroom Use

Three more portable classrooms will be put in service in the Dixie School District next school year, and one will serve to add administration office space.

Dixie trustees Wednesday ordered two standard-size portables at $2,106 each and one large portable (28 by 42 feet) at $2,766 from Speedspace Co. of Santa Rosa.

One standard classroom will be put at Bernard Hoffman School and the other at Lucas Valley School. The large one will replace a standard portable at Santa Margarita School, which is to be moved to the district office for extra space, Supt. Dennie B. Willis said.

Outstanding Boy, Girl Are Honored

Among awards presented last night at graduation ceremonies at Davidson Junior High School in San Rafael were two for the outstanding boy and girl graduate.

The Elks Lodge award for outstanding girl went to Lorena Ann Ekman of 46 F Street, San Rafael, and the Optimistic Club award for outstanding boy to Robert Roumiguiere of 18 Culloden Park Road, San Rafael.

Fairfax Budget Hearings Slated

Fairfax City Council will start budget hearings at an adjourned meeting scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Monday in the Fairfax Women's Club.

Also on the agenda is appointment of four members of the planning commission.

Contrary to earlier reports in the Independent-Journal, no resolution will be taken to confirm Nov. 14 as the tentative date for voting on a bond issue for financing civic facilities. That resolution will be taken later.

Synanon Planning 2-Day Street Fair

Synanon — which maintains a rehabilitation center for drug addicts and alcholics at Marshall — will conduct a fund raising street fair June 24 and 25 in San Francisco at Lombard and Sansome streets.

From noon to midnight that Saturday and from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. next day, there will be music by recording stars, instant verse by wandering poets, arts and crafts displays, carnival games and a "Mod" fashion show.

Occidental College Degrees To Marinites

Four Marin County students received bachelor of arts degrees from Occidental College in graduation exercises last Sunday.

They are: Janice L. Fairchild, who was graduated cum laude; Stephen R. Kinkade, who received the Joseph Wharton Fellowship, and Thomas S. Nicholson, a music major, all of San Anselmo. Christopher Bricca, of Kentfield, received a fellowship to the 1966 Summer Work-Study program in Mental Health at Sonoma State Hospital and the University of the Pacific.

Juvenile Rights Bill Advancing

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Assembly Criminal Procedures Committee has approved a bill that would extend to juveniles most of the rights granted to adults in criminal proceedings.

The bill, by committee chairman R. Craig Biddle, R-Riverside, would give juveniles the rights to remain silent and to cross examine witnesses who testified against them.

Juveniles would also have to be advised upon arrest of their rights to remain silent and to obtain counsel — at county expense if the juvenile so choses.

Hub Employees Get Pay Raise

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

San Anselmo city employees were given an across-the-board 5 per cent raise last night without increasing the city tax rate of $2.06 per $100 assessed valuation.

The raise squeaked through by 3-to-2 vote, with Councilman Robert M. Scott and Duane C. Ragan opposed.

Scott urged a 5 per cent pay hike for police, firemen and some other employees whose pay seemed out of line with similar jobs in other Marin cities, but only 2 and one-half per cent for the rest.

Ragan agreed with this, commenting, "The county is giving raises like they were going out of style."

Councilman John M. Reichmuth, who moved the 5 per cent hike, held that if the salary schedule needs adjusting, a wage survey should be made; otherwise, the raise should be the same percentage for all. Mayor Arthur W. Smith and Councilman Woodrow V. Capurro concurred.

At the time they voted the raise, councilmen feared it would increase the tax rate by a cent, and hoped to find something else to cut. However, City Administrator-Controller Alfred C. Kaeppel pulled a rabbit out of a hat in the form of $28,000 set aside for matching funds on state gasoline tax-financed street projects. He said $26,000 would be enough, and the $2,000 thus "saved" would make no tax increase necessary.

DRAINAGE FUNDS

The administrator-controller also found a way to include $8,340 as the city's third of a storm drainage study, with remainder to be paid from state and federal funds. Councilmen had abandoned it, until Kaeppel suggested the money be allocated from a $15,000 carryover budgeted in past years for Ross Avenue storm drainage. A new culvert being installed with widening of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard is expected to cut the Ross Avenue flooding.

Kaeppel also found a way to include a $7,950 traffic study, which had been urged by the San Anselmo Town Meeting. He reported a representative of the State Division of Highways had indicated gasoline tax funds might be used for this. Councilmen agreed to budget it with the understanding it would be dropped if it could not be financed from the gasoline tax.

To stretch the city's funds and keep the tax rate from rising, the council agreed to finance all vehicle purchases except police cars over three years. This will apply to a station wagon for the city engineer, a tractor for the parks department, and a power wagon for fire department use in fighting brush fires.

The power wagon was turned down 3-to-2 once, Smith, Capurro and Scott voting against it because Fire Chief Frank Sousa had given it a "B" priority. But after Asst. Chief Richard McLaren told the council the present power wagon — an old Army surplus weapons carrier — could not be depended on through the summer. Capurro announced he would change his vote and a new motion passed 4-1, with only Smith dissenting.

PROGRAM NIXED

The council nixed a $650 item toward paying a program director for the senior citizen program, which Parks and Recreation Director Frank Quinn said is to be operated jointly with Fairfax.

"Aren't they old enough to direct themselves?" asked Scott.

A major item restored to the budget last night was a six-inch water main on Tamalpais Avenue to Magnolia Avenue to replace two-inch and three-inch lines. With Marin Municipal Water District paying half, this will cost the city $5,750.

The council also "gave its blessing" to a $2,000 budget for San Anselmo's 60th anniversary celebration, which is expected to be self-liquidating from carnival receipts and booth rentals.

There were arguments from city employees for the 5 per cent raise, and from some citizens in the audience against it.

BUDGET TOTAL

"I'm sure that if we'd have had as much discussion on every one of these items, we'd be able to reduce our taxes," declared Mayor Smith.

The budget as it wound up totals about $1,124,500. It is San Anselmo's first million-dollar budget.

Kaeppel said he expected to be ready to present it for aodption at the next regular council meeting, June 27. The tax rate will not be set until August, when final assessment figures are received, but the $2.06 is based on the preliminary assessment figures.

TRAM'S PATRONS DON'T SPEAK UP

Commuters Fail To Appear For Tiburon Council's Hearing On Transport Future

By M. ELIZABETH JOHNSTON

Commuters who got out early for nine days to catch the Tiburon tram during its experimental runs, didn't come out to a Town Hall meeting last night to talk about it.

The only ferry commuter present was Councilman Branwell D. Fanning.

Disappointed but undaunted, the council considered using school buses instead of cable cars, and appointed a committee to get a study going.

SCANT AUDIENCE

In the audience were three city employees, members of the chamber of commerce and the Tiburon Peninsula Advisory Committee, and an Independent-Journal reporter.

Councilmen agreed lack of attendance was not due to apathy but to "lack of communication." Chamber of commerce president William I. Howell assured the council much interest in the test had been expressed by merchants as well as commuters.

Mayor John S. Hoffmire and City Mgr. Lawrence D. Rose spoke of receiving many phone calls and letters, some offering financial support for a permanent tram service.

BUS RENTAL?

The council considered renting school buses instead of, or in addition to the rubber-tired cable car for tram service. School bus schedules and tram schedules could work out, they figured.

Rose challenged several points of a report by James B. Robertson of the county public works department, given at a meeting of the Marin County Transit Board on June 2.

Rose said the experiment did prove some points not already known, although Robertson doubted it would. He said it would not cost $73,000 a year, as Robertson figured on the basis of $1,800 for the nine days. The cost would be much lower on a yearly rate, Ross said.

STUDY CITED

Howell commented on Robertson's arithmetic, too. He said the transit district put $60,000 "down the drain" for a study of buses and what color they should be and "still didn't get anywhere with it."

Councilmen objected to criticism of the cost for the city's test, which was a practical road-test, compared to a study costing $60,000 which never got off the conference table."

At its June 7 meeting, the transit district board voted $325 support of the tram test.

All councilmen felt there should be paid fares for a municipally operated transit system.

Rose said no one agency could support the system, and it could not be self-supporting. It would have to depend on several sources, such as merchants, riders, the Harbor Carriers Ferry Co., the federal government, etc., he declared.

MORE RUNS

Mrs. Louise Mirata in the audience suggested service be extended to other areas of Tiburon, such as Hillhaven and Lyford's Cove.

Mayor Hoffmire appointed an ad hoc study committee of councilman Bremer and Fanning, Howell and Rose.

The council went into a closed session from 9:15 to 10:20 p.m. to discuss appointments for two expiring planning commission terms. The council also held a closed session after Monday's regular meeting on the appointments.

Death Of Former Bishop's Aide Poses Mystery With Torn Note

Former Episcopal Bishop James A. Pike presided today at the Santa Barbara funeral of a former aide — a worker in the Marin County recorder's office prior to her association with the ex-bishop — whose death posed some mystery.

Mrs. Maren Bergrud, 43, was found in her Santa Barbara apartment early Wednesday. Death was attributed to an overdose of sleeping pills.

Pike, who was Episcopal bishop of California until last year, said she telephoned him before lapsing into unconsciousness and told him what she had done. He lives in the same apartment building.

The mystery arose from the fact that the lower portion of a suicide note by Mrs. Bergrud had been torn off. Half the note was found in the apartment. Pike told investigators he had no idea what happened to the other half.

Mrs. Bergrud was Maren Hackett when she worked for about four years in the Marin County recorder's office, prior to November, 1964. County Recorder Noel T. Giacomini said she was in charge af converting abstract records to data processing during her employment. She left because of ill health.

She resided nearly 10 years in Marin County, first in Mill Valley, then in the San Geronimo Valley, and last in San Rafael. She reportedly went to Washington, D.C., after leaving the recorder's office. She had been in Santa Barbara about a year, operating the New Focus Lecture and Literary Agency, which booked lectures and writing assignments for ex-bishop Pike.

When she came to Marin, she was married to Hennen Hackett, a newspaper reporter who worked on San Francisco papers and for International News Service. They were subsequently divorced, and he moved east. He is now in the Virgin Islands.

While here, she took several classes at Dominican College. She earlier had been educated at Marquette University.

Her Santa Barbara physician told investigators she had been despondent, but appeared in good spirits the last time he saw her, about 10 days before her death.

Her suicide was the second to touch ex-bishop Pike. His son took his own life last year in New York.

Funeral today was at Haider Mortuary in Santa Barbara. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael, with Rev. Robert W. Cromey, vicar of St. Alden's Church in San Francisco, officiating.

Treated For Burns

Robert Fibish, 45, manager of Harbor Texaco Station, 49 Medway Road, San Rafael, was treated for second degree burns on his right leg at Marin General Hospital, then released, at about 9:45 a.m. today, after he accidentally dumped a pot of hot coffee on himself.

Special Session

Tamalpais Fire Protection District commissioners last night set a special meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the firehouse with Alfred J. Stern, developer of the Diaz Ranch, to discuss their request that he build a fire station in his development.

More Funds For Police In Budget

The Novato City Council last night tentatively approved a police budget of $283,030 for fiscal 1968.

This was $1,370 more than City Mgr. J. Julien Baget had recommended, but $85,880 less than requested by Police Chief Robert Di Grazia. The chief had asked for six additional officers, one additional lieutenant, an administrative secretary and a police clerk. The council turned them all down.

Councilmen also cut the chief's capital outlay request by $16,450 to $4,980.

The council authorized a uniform allowance for the police reserves, raising that budget from $680 to $1,580.

This completes the council's first review of the budget. It now totals $1,097,454, compared to the manager's request of $1,098,435, which will still keep it within the 75 cents per $100 assessed valuation tax rate.

The council will hold a final recap on the preliminary budget, but the date has not been set.

Tennis Signup

Registration for Sausalito's annual tennis instruction program will be held June 29 from 7 to 8:30 p.m. in city hall, Sausalito recreation commission announced last night. The program, for children and adults, will be July 10-28 at Richardson Bay School.

Ignition Damaged

Fran D. Malone, 502 Northern Avenue, Tamalpais Valley, yesterday reported to Mill Valley police that ignition wires in her car were torn loose while it was parked Wednesday night at 84 Throckmorton Avenue.

THREE-WHEELED RIDE

Pavement Pounding Ends For Mailmen

The era of foot-weary mailmen has come to an end in San Rafael.

They all ride three-wheeled "mailsters" now.

Postmaster Hugh Cassidy said today the last six of a total of 53 mailsters arrived a few days ago from Reno, putting an end to the time-honored practice of walking the route to deliver mail.

The changeover from pavement pounding in San Rafael was speeded by cold weather elsewhere, Cassidy said. The mailsters did not perform well during the winter in sub-zero places—so they were sent to such mild spots as San Rafael.

Asst. Supt. of Mails Ed Burdisso said all routes in the San Rafael, Civic Center and Kentfield districts have been extended. Previous two-trip routes have been converted into one, increasing the territory coverable in an eight-hour day, he said, at a saving of $50 per day.

Burdisso said two letter and two parcel post routes have been eliminated. However, no post office employee has lost his job due to the changeover, he declared.

Burdisso also said the mailster deliveries allow for a more personalized service. Carriers now deliver both letters and parcels at the same time.

The mailsters don't eliminate the mailman's most common hazard, though. He must alight from the vehicle at the curb to take the mail to the box — making him fair game for dogs.

Fairfax Planning Maps On Display

Two maps, giving a glimpse of the Fairfax of the future, are on display at banks in the city.

The proposed park and recreation facilities plan is on show at the Bank of America and on display at the Crocker Citizens National Bank is the preliminary land use map.

Both have been prepared by the Marin County Planning Department, consultants for the Fairfax General Plan.

Bridge Tickets Stolen From Cars

Marvin Stahl, 512 Sausalito Boulevard, Sausalito, yesterday reported to police that a book of bridge tickets and an electronic door opener were stolen from his locked car, parked Wednesday night outside his home.

George Alexander, 1 Third Street, Sausalito, reported yesterday that a book of bridge tickets were stolen from his locked car, also parked outside his residence.

Novato Girls Report Exposure Incident

A man exposed himself indecently to three girls, aged 10 through 12, while they were playing yesterday on the Lynwood School grounds in Novato, police reported.

He was described as 40 to 50 years old, with gray-streaked hair, about six feet tall and weighing about 200 pounds. He drove away in a yellow Chevrolet, the girls told police.

Stolen Car Found

A 1958 model car belonging to June Halberg of Daly City which was stolen from the Enco service station at 8145 Redwood Highway, Novato, was recovered at 3 a.m. today abandoned on Highway 101 north of Novato, by Novato police. It was impounded by the California Highway Patrol.

Car Overturns

Highway patrolmen today were looking for the driver of a 1951 Chevrolet two-door sedan found upside down on Novato Boulevard, west of San Marin Drive, today at 12:15 a.m. The car is registered to Frances Vierra, 16 Piro Vista, Novato, the patrol reported.

Fall Hurts Worker

Hayward carpenter Tony Smith was reported in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital with a back injury after he reportedly fell nine feet from concrete ledge to the ground at 1:51 p.m., yesterday, while working on new construction at 220 Shaver Street, San Rafael.

Rodeo To Open Novato Western Week On Sunday

The thrills of riders on bucking broncos or angy bulls, roping broncos or angry bulls, rop-other rodeo events will open Novato's Western Week celebration at 1 p.m. Sunday at the Novato Horsemen's Arena on Bugeia Lane.

This one-day event is expected to attract some of the best cowboys in Northern California because it is offering $600 in prize money. Rodeo stock has been furnished by Cotton Rosser's Flying U Ranch of Marysville.

No activities are scheduled for Monday.

The beard contest will be judged Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the Novato Community House. At the same time, the Novato Community Players will present the melodrama, "The Widow's Plight, or Virtue Victorious."

The Western Weekend — expanded this year to a full week—will wind up with a parade at 6 p.m. on June 24.

MY FAIR LADY

Eliza Doolittle would feel right at home in this stately country mansion with its touches of Edwardian grandeur and magnificent English-style gardens. Built in 1906 and modernized over the years, this venerable estate has seen the great and near-great enter its baronial hall and gather in the drawing room and high-ceilinged music room. The dining room, with its breakfast alcove, has seated as many as 30 for dinner, and the social room with wet bar will hold dozens for more casual entertaining. Eight bedrooms, 6½ baths, 2 caretakers' cottages — all within the 2⅓ acres of grounds in the heart of old Ross.

Am I Appealing?

Houses, like women, are appealing to different people. Some like them large; others like them brightly painted; others like them more subdued. Some like a large front yard; others a large back yard. Everyone looks for an attractive one. My statistics are:

★ 2 baths
★ Carpets
★ Drapes
★ Patio
★ Double garage
★ Large fen. back yard

Do I appeal to you? You won't be sure until you look at me. Call 892-3215 or come by 26 PLAZA DEMIRA. You'll be glad you did. I'm a friendly one!

Truly one of the most beautiful homesites in Marin. This 1.6 acre level knoll has sweeping views in every direction for the never-ending fascination of the fortunate owner who builds here. In San Rafael's luxurious and gracious Fairhills.

7 ACRES—$56,000
We are proud indeed to offer these seven tree studded acres. Magnificent homesites have wide views, a bass casting pond for the fisherman, corral and miles of riding trails for the horseman, and the privacy so difficult to find. All this beauty and seclusion are but a mile from schools and markets and only 35 minutes from San Francisco. Ideal for a private estate.

Vietnam Critic Out Of Navy

SAN DIEGO (UPI)—Lt. Cmdr. Laurance Baldauf, reprimanded for criticizing conduct of the Vietnam war, resigned from the Navy yesterday.

The 33-year-old pilot, son of retired Rear Adm. L.C. Baldauf Sr., signed his final separation papers at the San Diego Naval Station. The separation became effective at midnight.

Baldauf, a member of the John Birch Society, had publicly denounced what he called the "demoralizing no-win policy in Vietnam" and wrote letters to ranking admirals urging them to resign rather than carry out orders from Washington.

He did not face court-martial but was officially reprimanded by the Navy.

Plea Set On Disturbance

Ira Lewis Edwards, 21, of Marin City, was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court yesterday on charges of disturbing the peace and battery on a sheriff's officer, and is to enter plea at 1:30 p.m. next Thursday.

Edwards, of 135 Drake Avenue, and Morrison Smith, 19, of 307 Drake Avenue, were arrested early yesterday on suspicion of contributing to the delinquency of a 17-year-old Mill Valley girl. Sheriff's officers said Edwards assaulted Deputy Richard Russell.

The girl was sent to juvenile hall for curfew violation. No complaint will be filed against Smith, Deputy Dist. Atty. Jerry Herman said in court yesterday.

Business Plan Works–Reagan

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan says the rest of the nation is watching Republican efforts to apply business practices to government and will be "ready to move if it works here."

Reagan said yesterday he has enlisted 192 businessmen in task forces to probe means of increasing efficiency.

Meantime, he said, efforts to economize are continuing.

The state phone bill is being trimmed more than $1 million a year.

Out-of-state trips have been reduced from 276 to 20 during four months.

And a freeze on state agencies buying their own cars has brought a 10 per cent cut in gas purchases.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Toxemias In Late Stages Of Pregnancy–Very Serious

VAN DELLEN

The more serious toxemias of pregnancy (eclampsia) should be not confused with morning sickness or the nausea and vomiting of early pregnancy. The eclampsias occur in the last three months and lead to an accumulation of fluid in the body causing swelling of the legs, albumin in the urine, and elevation of blood pressure. When the abnormality goes untreated, the brain is affected by the excess fluid and convulsions and coma ensue.

Lassitude and headache are early manifestations. The blood pressure usually rises and a urinalysis shows small amounts of albumin. A slight edema of the ankles and face also may be found. This is why these tests are made because the earlier toxemia is detected, the sooner treatment can be started.

AS TOXEMIA continues, headaches become more severe and puffiness extends to the neck, hands, and most of the body. The victim looks ill and drowsy. Visual disturbances are common, including spots before the eyes, and dimness or double vision. Later, vomiting along with constricting sensations of the chest, muscle twitching, and convulsions occur.

In the convulsion the victim becomes unconscious. The muscles of the body become rigid. They jerk and twitch in an uncontrollable manner for 30 seconds to 2 minutes. Severe injury may result. Between attacks the woman may be quiet or extremely restless.

THE MOMENT toxemia is diagnosed, bed rest is advised. Salt is taboo and drugs are given to quiet the mind, relax the spasms, and reduce blood pressure. The condition is cured with the delivery of the baby. Termination is advisable if the woman is more than 36 weeks pregnant.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the Independent-Journal)

LIKES TO REMINISCE

H. C. writes: An elderly woman is not concerned about the present but likes to reminisce about the past. Should we go along with her or try to improve her alertness by discussing current events?

REPLY

Do a little of both. She may not retain the information on current topics but it may stimulate her thinking and the added attention she gets will be appreciated. Most oldsters forget recent events but can recall minute details of the past.

DEFECTIVE PALATE

J. D. writes: What is a cleft palate?

REPLY

A defect of the hard palate that is noted at birth. In this condition, the roof of the mouth fails to close in the midline, during the period of development, leaving an opening between nose and oral cavity.

CARDIOSPASM

Mrs. O. L. writes: Is operation needed to cure cardiospasm?

REPLY

Relief usually follows stretching the tightened opening of the stomach with a special dilator. Should this fail, surgery may be needed.

MUSCLE SORENESS

A. M. writes: Can a person who gets periodic attacks of fibrositis ever be cured?

REPLY

Recurrence is the rule in fibrositis, but many individuals suffer only one or two attacks in a lifetime.

PENICILLIN AND BLOOD

C. E. S. writes: Does the use of penicillin for 10 days thin the blood?

REPLY

No. Penicillin has no effect upon the consistency of the blood.

AMESTHESIA FOR INSECT

R. C. writes: I have heard that when an insect crawls into the ear it must be anesthetized before it can be removed. This sounds silly to me. Please comment.

REPLY

Removal is easier when the insect is anesthetized. This is done by inserting a pledget of cotton that has been dipped into ether or chloroform. In some instances the individual must be anesthetized to keep him still while the bug is being removed.

VIGOROUS TREATMENT

Mrs. S. R. writes: My husband has been ill for two years with amebic dysentery. He has some good days but more miserable ones. Is there any hope of cure?

REPLY

Yes, but it may require several courses of treatment with a variety of amebicides. Meanwhile, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for our leaflet on amebiasis.

CHOKING SPELLS

J. J. writes: I get frequent choking spells at the table, after I start eating. My doctor found nothing wrong. Could these attacks be due to nervousness or paralysis?

REPLY

Yes, provided the examination was thorough and included a peek inside with the laryngoscope. Paralysis of the swallowing mechanism may follow a stroke.

ANXIETY ABOUT TUMOR

K. W. writes: Can a person get psychoneurosis with a tumor of the brain?

RELY

Many individuals become nervous or psychoneurotic when they develop a disease, including brain tumor. This is particularly true if they are worried about the outcome.

ACHING CHEEK BONES

K. K. writes: What would cause painful cheek bones?

REPLY

Abcessed teeth, sinus trouble or neuralgia.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Plenty Of Events For Dad On Sunday

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Father's Day, Sunday, gets a passing nod tomorrow on "The Dating Game." Participants will include Groucho Marx, his daughter Melinda and three unidentified "celebrity fathers," ABC, 7:30 p.m. EDT.

Dad can feast his eyes tonight on coed finalists representing all 50 states in the 13th annual National College Queen Pageant. For the ladies: Robert Goulet, hosting the New York festivities. NBC, 10 p.m. EDT.

Golfing fathers can see Sam Snead discuss short shots at 4:30 p.m. EDT tomorrow on ABC. "Sportsman's Holiday," returning Sunday for a third summer, offers trout fishing in South America and surf casting on Cape Cod. NBC, 5:30 p.m. EDT.

Sunday also brings Part 1 of "Aging in America," a two-installment series said to stress positive solutions to problems of health, shelter and meaningful living. "Look Up and Live," CBS, 8:30 a.m. EDT.

"Face the Nation" presents Canadian Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson, CBS, 9:30 a.m. EDT.

Another daily game show, "The Family Game," starts Monday on ABC at 11:30 a.m. EDT. Bob Barker hosts as parents try to match their children's answers to such questions as, "Which one of your mother's friends does your father think is the prettiest?"

Tuesday "CBS Reports," 10 p.m. EDT, studies Sen. Robert F. Kennedy on film everywhere from a moving car to Sun Valley's snows. National figures assess Kennedy's role as a senator and his political future.

Looking backward—

Steve Allen is a funnier fellow than the spotty opener of his Comedy Hour managed to be Wednesday night.

On next Wednesday's session Steve has singers Gilbert Price and Dionne Warwick, comedians John Byner and Roney Carey and an improvisational comedy group called The Session. It's six young performers include the sons of Carl Reiner and Joey Bishop.

Last Saturday's second edition of "Away We Go" did an entertainment nose-dive after its sparkling opener a week earlier as Jackie Gleason's summer fill in. Tomorrow, singer Joanie Sommers and impressionist David Frye join hosts Buddy Greco and George Carlin.

Council Of Church Donated The Funds

It is the Marin Council of Churches which raised $3,240 this year and similar sums in years past toward support of a part-time chaplain at Juvenile Hall.

Yesterday's Independent-Journal incorrectly reported the sum was raised by the Juvenile Hall Auxiliary. The auxiliary this year, supporting the chaplain for the first time, raised $1,300, probation officer Walter H. Busher reported.

Base In Libya Facing Ouster

WASHINGTON (UPI)—U.S. officials expressed hope today that Libya will not press the United States to withdraw from its $100 million Wheelus Air Force Base near Tripoli.

Libya, at the prodding of Egypt, served another eviction notice yesterday on the last American military base on Arab soil.

Administration sources said it was hoped anti-American sentiment in the Arab world would ease and evacuating the base would be forgotten.

In 1964, under similar pressure from her Arab neighbors, Libya asked the United States to pull out of Wheelus but never pressed the issue.

Ex-Cashier Hears Charge In Court

A former employee of Montgomery Ward and Co.'s store in Corte Madera was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court yesterday on a charge of grand theft from her employer.

Elizabeth I. Jones, 21, of 6 Carmel Way, San Anselmo, surrendered to Corte Madera police yesterday noon, after a warrant for her arrest was issued by the district attorney's office.

She was charged with theft of $1,450, which police said was taken between Jan. 1 and June 6 while she was working in the cashier's office at the store.

Colored Patrol Cars Is Setback

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The last half of a legislative package sought by the California Highway Patrol and supported by Gov. Ronald Reagan has been rejected.

The Senate Tranportation Committee rejected yesterday a measure to allow a portion of the highway patrol's fleet to consist of cars painted different colors so they would be less easily recognized.

The proposal by Assemblyman William Ketchum, R-Paso Robles, had won earlier approval from the Assembly.

A companion measure which would have permitted the highway patrol to use radar to detect speeders was rejected last month by an Assembly Committee.

Brookside Students Paint 'B' On Hill

Sixty sixth grade pupils from San Anselmo's Brookside School yesterday painted a large "B" on the hill behind their school as a "parting gesture" to the school year. They plan to make this an annual event.

The hill, owned by Mrs. Betty Jennings of 104 The Alameda, was made available to the children a year ago for nature hikes and letter painting. Pupils painted a letter last fall but it washed away in winter rains, Principal Jack A. Graves reported.

Giants Limp Back To Candlestick

The San Francisco Giants limped back to Candlestick Park tonight after Houston's Jim Wynn earned the distinction of being the first player to stroke three straight home runs in the Astrodome.

The Astros beat the Giants 6-2 last night for a 3-1 series edge. edge.

Wynn, Astro centerfielder, ran his homer string to 14 off Bob Bolin in the fourth, Mike McCormick in the sixth, and Bill Henry in the eighth.

Hurting for pitching starters, San Francisco manager Herman Franks will send Lindy McDaniel (1-2), relief specialist, to the mound in the first of a three-game set with the Cards. Gametime is 8 o'clock.

Houston's Mike Cuellar put down the Giants with eight hits and struck out 10 in winning his eighth against two losses. Starter Bolin was charged with his sixth loss in nine games.

Willie McCovey and Ollie Brown, both hurting with pulled leg muscles, were missing from the Giant lineup.

San Francisco scored first as Jesus Alou, hitting in his eighth straight game, banged a third inning single scoring Hal Lanier from second.

Cuellar struck out Willie Mays, however, after Jim Davenport produced a single moving Alou to third.

Wynn's solo homer and another run off Bolin in the fourth put Houston ahead 2-1.

The Giants tied it 2-2 in the fifth as Tito Fuentes doubled and was singled home by Davenport.

Wynn homered again in the sixth off McCormick and started a two-run rally with his third solo homer in the eighth against Henry.

Following the three-game series with the Cardinals, the Giants face the invasion of the league-leading Cincinnati Reds for two games, followed by the Atlanta Braves for three, wind-up the homestand with a Thursday doubleheader against the Braves.

49ERS-RAIDERS GAME WILL BE IN OAKLAND

Oakland Raiders of the American Football League and San Francisco 49ers of the NFL will meet for the first time in an exhibition game on Sunday, Sept. 3, at Oakland Coliseum.

That was determined this morning when team captains Jim Otto of the Raiders and Clark Miller of the 49ers met on neutral Treasure Island for a flip of a coin to determine the site of this first meeting between the cross-bay rivals.

The Raiders won the flip when Miller called "heads" and the coin landed "tails."

JACK HANLEY

Power Happy Giants Need Modest Singles

During a 13-game stretch from May 30 to June 11 the Giants hit 24 homers. Ollie Brown hit six, Tom Haller five, Willie McCovey three, Willie Mays, Jim Ray Hart, Jack Hiatt and Jay Alou two each, Dick Dietz and Tito Fuentes, one apiece.

It would seem that 24 homers in 13 consecutive games should have resulted in more than eight victories. But they didn't. The Giants lost five of those games.

A reasonable argument could be made that the team's pitchers were responsible for the losses. However, it isn't as simple as that. Ineffective pitching was responsible for a couple of the losses but not all five of them. Two of the losses could be traced to errors.

No baseball team has ideal pitching or fielding defenses. So losses, notwithstanding home runs, are understandable even though difficult to excuse. But losses because of an almost chronic inability to hit simple singles are frustrating to watch.

Everybody Wants To Hit Homers

Time and again the Giants have lost games this season due to a failure to produce a modest single. It's great to be a home run hitter but the Giants always have been a power happy team.. Everybody wants to hit homers, even in batting practice.

Not long ago Larry Jansen told a No 7 hitter, who requested the pitching coach to throw to him in a special batting drill, "I'll be glad to if you stop trying to pull the ball and start stroking it to right—I made a good living getting out pull hitters like you."

Singles may not be as spectacular in winning ball games as dramatic homers but they are just as decisive.

No Speed, No Hit-And-Run Play

A team that can hit singles also can exploit the hit-run play. But that's been a lost art with the Giants since Harvey Kuenn left the team. Kuenn rarely failed in protecting a runner by getting his bat on the ball. It wasn't just coincidence that the Giants won their last pennant in 1962 when Kuenn was with the club.

Herman Franks needn't be concerned about the enemy stealing his hit-run sign because the manager of the Giants has flashed it only once this season—and that was last night, resulting in a double play. A manager can't use the hit-run when he has no runners and no dependable single hitters to protect them.

This 1967 team of Giants has to be one of the most heavy-footed outfits in the history of major league baseball. Their first and only stolen base was as accidental theft in the 50th game of the season when Willie McCovey, running on a 3-2 pitch, safely reached second base as the batter struck out.

Billy Casper Is One Under

SPRINGFIELD, N.J. (AP) — Big Jack Nicklaus charged through the shimmering heat of the Baltusrol Golf Club Course to a three-under-par 67 today and the early second round lead in the United States Open Golf Championship.

His 138 put him one stroke ahead of defending champion Billy Casper, who put together a par 70.

After bogeying the first hole, where he overhit the green, the Ohio strongboy knocked in birdies with eight foot putts at the fifth and eighth holes to turn in 33.

Then, after another bogey at the 10th, where he drove into the right rough and found himself stymied by trees, he rallied with birdie putts of 18 and 30 feet on the two par three holes—the 12th and 16th—and climaxed his round with a birdie four on the 18th.

HOT DAY

Marty Fleckman, a 23-year-old amateur from Port Arthur, Tex., who took the first round lead with a three-under-par 67, and most of the other major contenders were still out on the 7,015-yard Baltusrol Golf Club Course, sweltering under 96 degree heat.

Casper was one of seven tied for second with 69s going into this second round. Most of them — Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, Dean Beman, Chi Chi Rodriguez and Art Wall — were among the late starters.

The other, Don January, struggled and scrambled to a 72 for 141.

Dick Lotz, a 24-year-old pro from Hayward, Calif., had a 67 for a 143.

Wes Ellis, Dave Hill and Rod Funseth all had 69s, Ellis for 143, Hill for 145 and Funseth for 147.

Ben Hogan, 55-year-old winner of four U.S. Open titles, shot himself out of contention with consecutive bogeys on the fourth and fifth holes, putting him four over for the tourney.

Can Stanford Nine Stop Arizonans?

OMAHA, Neb., (AP)—Who's going to stop unbeaten Arizona State?

That's the major question in the 21st College World Series.

Houston, which meets Arizona State tonight in the fourth round, has the hitting but probably not the pitching or defense to halt the talented, fiery competitors coached by Bobby Winkles.

Only Stanford, which eliminated Auburn 5-3 in a rain-shortened fourth round game last night, appears to be in ASU's Class. The rain washed out the Houston-ASU game, giving their pitchers a needed extra day of rest.

DRAWING

If Houston upsets Arizona State, a drawing will be held after the game to determine tomorrow night's pairings. If Arizona State wins, Stanford would have to win two nights in a row to take it all.

Stanford coach Dutch Fehring saved his two best pitchers and went with a strapping sophomore, Pete Hamm, against Auburn. He was touched for a double, triple, home run and four singles and needed help from Frank Klinger in the seventh, but got his fourth victory.

A four-run fourth inning for Stanford included three Auburn errors, two walks and just one hit—a two-run single by Jeff Rohlfing. The storm hit with Auburn at bat, one out in the eighth.

Arizona State, for certain, has the inside track to the NCAA crown. It would be the second national title in three years for Winkles, a 37-year-old former Chicago White Sox infielder.

BATTING .309

ASU has a team batting average of .309 in the tourney, led by catcher Ron Davini at .600 and outfielder Scott Reid, .455 with two homers and seven runs batted in for three tourney games.

Left-hander Jeff Pentland, a 14-game winner who lasted only 1 1-3 innings against Stanford Wednesday, will start for ASU, while Houston will go with little-used Rick Brewer.

After a 12-1 loss to Stanford, Houston rallied to edge Ohio State 7-6 and beat Boston College 3-2 in 13 innings on Paciorek's homer. ASU beat Oklahoma State 7-2, Boston College 8-1 and Stanford 5-3.

The outlook now is for ASU's 16-game winner, Gary Gentry, against Stanford's tall, herky, jerky Rod Poteete tomorrow night.

Charlie Greene Mum After Tying Record

PROVO, Utah (AP) — Charlie Greene tied the world 100-yard dash record and refused to talk about it. Gerry Lindgren humiliated his opposition in the six-mile run and scoffed at the altitude factor.

Those were among surprises last night in the opening round of the 46th annual NCAA Track and Field Championships at Brigham Young University.

Jim Ryun of Kansas, the world mile champion, easily won a qualifying heat and then bypassed the half-mile — an event in which he also has the fastest time on record. Tommie Smith, the 220 and 440 record-holder, decided to run only in the 220. He also had been entered in the 100 and 440 but said he did not want to risk an injury.

All of the favorites came through the qualifying in fine form, but some darkhorses also turned up. One was Lennox Miller, a Southern California sophomore who ran the 100 in 9.2 seconds and the 220 in 20.5.

Greene refused to talk after the race. A Nebraska teammate, quartermiler Clifton Forbes, said Greene just didn't feel like talking.

Greene might have been solemn, but Lindgren was jovial after running away from the field in 28:44.0 in the six-mile, the night's only final.

Finals will be held tonight and tomorrow.

THURMOND INDICATES HE'LL STAY

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Cautious optimism that Nate Thurmond will stay with the San Francisco Warriors and not jump to the new Oakland club in a rival pro basketball league was voiced by the Warrior coach after Thurmond huddled for 15 minutes last night with owner Franklin Mieuli.

"All the signs seem to indicate that Nate will play for us," said Bill Sharman, coach of the San Francisco club in the National Basketball Association.

"But you never can be sure about a fellow until he actually puts it in writing."

Both Thurmond and the sensational scoring ace Rick Barry have been reported leaning toward bigger money offers from the new Oakland club of the American Basketball Association.

Clay's Last Boxing Show— At Least For A While

DETROIT (UPI) — Cassius Clay, the unbeaten champion without a title, said goodby to boxing last night for at least a couple months—maybe for a couple years.

"There are other things I have to do—more important things," Clay said. "I have to study for my ministry and I have a lot of invitations for speaking engagements."

One invitation he didn't mention was the one coming up Monday in Houston, Texas. He goes to federal court there because he refused to enter the U.S. Army on the grounds of being a conscientious objector.

Clay, who prefers his Muslim name, Muhammad Ali, toyed with a popular young Detroit fighter—Alvin "Blue" Lewis—and another unknown—Orville Qualls of Chicago—for three rounds each last night in his final fight for what he says will be some time.

The World Boxing Association took Clay's title away when he refused to enter the army, and began making plans for an elimination tournament to pick a new champion immediately. Clay seemed almost unconcerned about losing the title.

"No one will accept another champ from all those fellows I've beaten," he said. "They can't take the title away with an ink pen or a typewriter."

Clay, who came in 13 pounds above his usual fighting weight of 206, played with Qualls and Lewis. His punches weren't vicious and even if they had been, they would have been cushioned by protective headgear and pillowy 16-ounce gloves.

Only 3,523 fans showed up at Cobo Hall to watch the exhibition, which could have accomodated up to about 12,000.

Another No. 1 Pick Signs With Giants

The San Francisco Giants have signed their number one selection in last week's free agent draft. He is 18-year-old David Martin Rader, left handed hitting catcher who has completed his scholastic career at Bakersfield High.

Radar is a 5-foot-11-inch, 170-pounder. The Giants' southern California scout, Dick Wilson, looked Rader over and Carl Hubbell, the club's farm director, signed him yesterday in Bakersfield.

Terms were not announced but San Francisco indicated there was a sizeable bonus.

Rader has been assigned to Salt Lake City of the Pioneer League for this season.

San Rafael Braves Leave For Road Trip

Litchfield's San Rafael Braves, riding on the crest of a hugely successful homestand debut, head into enemy territory tonight when they board a bus for the North Country.

The Braves, a spotless 4-0 in the Western Baseball Association, trek to Bellingham, Wash., for a three-game date with the Bells.

They'll meet in a single game tomorrow night then play two games Sunday, beginning at noon.

The Bells have already heard the pealing once in a 10-6 loss to the Braves Monday.

San Rafael will make the trip with a 20-man squad, the limit set by loop managers.

Here's what happened to the players not making the trip, now or the rest of the summer:

Tom Brown signed with the Houston Astros, Steve Howder, under contract to the Dodgers, went to Tri Cities in the Northwest League. Fred Daniele had a conflict of interests with a summer weekend job. Nino Geminiani's arm failed to respond to treatment. San Rafael's Rocky Shone is working in Ukiah and will play on the Merchants' WBA squad. Jess Jacinto will be strictly a coach except for home games.

Former Marin Catholic star Ben Burch, who hurled five shutout innings against Fallon, Nev., las week, is slated to go in tomorrow's opener, to be followed on the mound by Bob DeRosa and Ron Gilliam Sunday.

Some Top Stars Are Returning

By GARY TISCHLER

If the number of talented high school athletes returning to the Marin County scene next year and any indication, it ought to be a season of sports fireworks beginning in the fall.

There is potential in abundance, spread across the Marin County Athletic League.

Just a quick look at some of the returnees will make some kind of picture of what's ahead.

SAN RAFAEL HIGH has one of the smallest kids around in Herb Rowland but he could become a super-star. He'll have a good crack at the starting quarterback job for the Bulldogs and is the top Class B hurdler in the MCAL.

In football, Coach Bob Muster can get kingsize help from regulars Frank Pandiani, a fierce halfback and defensives end, tackle Chris Klyce, and fullback Dick Loomis.

THE PEOPLE TO watch at Redwood will be newcomer Larry Blackwell, a talented speedster who will give the Giants an airborne backfield with his running and throwing capabilities, talents matched by sophomore quarterback Jim Peters and halfback Ken Johnson, already a proven baseball star at shortstop. Also rated top prospects at Redwood are distance runner Wayne Horyouchi, Class B cage star Roger Smith, brother of former Giant ace Russ Smith, hurlers Billy Poole and Mike Terry and bean-tall (6-6) Gary Dietrich on the cage squad.

FOR DRAKE, the top prospect is Don Alvarado, already a three-sport veteran for the past two years. He'll have to bolster Coach Carl Brown's cagers, being the lone vet. He'll also help the Pirates as an end in football, a catcher in baseball. Mike Gaffney, a top hitter in the MCAL, brings Class B scoring credentials to the cage squad, Don Stone is a returning starting quarterback, one of the league's best. Bob Girvin and John Skaer remain from Drake's super-four swimmers and Art Pla is expected to be a sleeper on the basketball squad.

FOR NOVATO, TWO talented sophs helped the Hornets to a good share of their baseball success. Russ Dillon and Steve McNally, both hurlers, will be back. Dillon could be the Hornets' starting quarterback while McNally may be one of the MCAL's top cage scorers. Back too are the Donaldson twins, Ken and Kirt, to keep Novato on top in wrestling while Ray Leach will return to possibly give the Hornets a second straight golf title.

TAMALPAIS THREATENS to have some super-stars. Don Mackin was already considered the league's top quarterback before an injury knocked the sophomore out for the season. Mike Fowler, minus one big toe, will return to ply his block-busting trade at fullback and in wrestling. Pat Schafer could turn into the MCAL's top center. Bruce Hildreth, a 265-pounder, will undoubtedly help bolster coach Willie Hector's line. Leroy Barrow is a three-sport veteran and will be back in football, basketball and baseball. The Indians also have a blossoming track star in Luther Brown and a proven one in sprinter Allan Lee.

TERRA LINDA HAS the league's best defensive end in Bruce Kilby, who triples in basketball and baseball. Back also is distance star Bob Bunnell, the MCAL record-holder in the two-mile run and cross-country champ.

The Trojan grid fortunes will also get help from veteran quarterback Dave Edson, halfback Marc Buckley, and lineman Bob Lima.

MARIN CATHOLIC HAS the nucleus of a championship basketball team with the return of aces Ches Bornia, Rich Garms and Harry Matsinger. Matsinger also was a starting shortstop on coach Gary Hughes' baseball team. Jim Finnegan, an all-league halfback, will be back, but won't have a chance to repeat as an all-leaguer with the Wildcats no longer in the MCAL football picture.

State Tourney Draws Seven Marin Golfers

Marin County's finest young golfers will top a strong North aggregation in the 56th annual State Amateur Golf Championship at Pebble Beach Monday and Tuesday.

Walker Cupper and British Amateur runnerup Ron Cerrudo of San Rafael, Novato High School star Ray Leach and San Rafael High School's Don Hawken will represent the North-South team championship that precedes Monday's title tourney at Pebble Beach and at 10:20 a.m. Tuesday at Cypress Point.

Hawken tees off at 10:20 Monday at Pebble Beach and at 10:20 a.m. Tuesday at Cypress Point.

Hawken tees off at 10:20 Monday morning and at 10:44 Tuesday morning at the same courses.

Teeing off at 1:08 p.m. Monday and at 7:56 a.m. Tuesday will be Buzz Beattie of Ross while Kai Thomsen of Novato starts at 1:32 p.m. Monday and at 8:20 Tuesday. Kenneth Harnquist of Ross starts at 8:28 a.m. Monday and at 1:40 p.m. Tuesday.

In the 18-hole handicap tournament at Monterey Peninsula Country Club Monday, Carlos Morales of Tiburon is slated to start at 7:48 a.m.

Mill Valley Gal Bowls First 200

With five children, you wouldn't think a woman would get a chance to go out bowling.

But Ruth Roberts, a Mill Valley housewife, gets out for summer league bowling at Country Club Bowl in San Rafael. She rolled her first 200 game and first 500 series the other day in the Bowlerettes League.

She had a 224 game, tthe high game score of the week at Country Club for the women, and went on to a 552 series of three. A 135 average bowelr, she's only been bowling in leagues for two years.

Having the high series of the week is nothing new for Kay Brem, also a Mill Valley housewife. This time she rapped the pins for a 585 three-gamer headed by a 218 line, in the Ladies Scratch League. It was the third time in the last four weeks she's had top series among the women at Country Club Bowl.

Jarth Oates of the Merry Mixers had high series, a 655, and Neal Hurley had high game, 258 (and 636 series) to top scores for men. Lee Stetson and Al Miller whipped off 257 and 253 lines respectively.

Mrs. Goldman Wins Flag Golf Tourney

Mrs. Walter Goldman reached the 20th hole to win a Flag Day golf tournament yesterday at Marin Country Club, Novato.

Runnerup Mrs. William Wieland heached the 19th hole. Mrs. Walter Kessler finished on the 19th green and Mesdames L. T. Kett and A. L. Cueva wound up on the 19th fairway.

EIGHT CYCLES ON THE FIRING LINE

Eight drivers in the San Rafael Motorcycle Club's scrambles get set for a roaring start. The scrambles, held last Sunday off San Quentin Road, drew 193 riders and 400 spectators. In a scrambles, the course is laid over natural terrain, bumps and all. Next one is scheduled for July 23, same place.

Trout Stocked In Nearby Lakes; Salmon Run Still Hot And Heavy

STEVENS

Happen you're tired of pulling in sturgeon, striped bass or salmon, and have a yen to fry up a mess of freshly caught trout, the following waters have been stocked with catchable sized trout—by counties:

Mendocino—East branch of the Russian River and Cleone Lake.

Lake—Upper Blue Lake. San Francisco—Lake Merced. Alameda—Alameda Creek. Santa Clara—Stevens Creek Reservoir. Santa Cruz — Corralitos Creek, San Lorenzo River. Monterey — Big Sur River.

Do you need a few salmon to eat while fresh, or to can in the pressure cooker, or have smoked? The phenomenal run of fish is still going strong. Limit catches are the rule rather than the exception. About half silvers and half chinoolks.

STURGEON STILL are the featured fish in the San Pablo Bay but bait fishing for bass has improved a great deal. I spoke to Alice Quan of China Camp Wednesday morning and was told lots of stripers have been coming in the past few days, most of which seem to have been caught on bait — grass shrimp—while fishing for sturgeon. Alice suggested persons get to China Camp to fish the last of the outgoing tide and the first of the incoming tide.

"Lots of fine flat founders have also been coming in this week," said Alice. One chap from San Rafael, August Frank, landed a 40-pound sturgeon and three striped bass on Tuesday. It is apparently all bait fishing in the general area of the Pump House.

MRS. EDDING of Chuck's Landing at Santa Venetia reported fairly good fishing for both sturgeon and stripers. Largest sturgeon was landed by angler Carney and weighed 66 pounds "We had 28 boats out on Sunday and most of them did well on sturgeon and bass. On Tuesday 5 boats came in with sturgeon to 44 pounds and bass to 18 pounds. Most of the fish were caught on ghost shrimp," said Mrs. Edding.

LATE EVENING trolling in the upper San Pablo Bay has been slow getting started. Contrary to what was expected, more fish are being taken on bait. That condition could change.

Seals Negotiate For Retired Defenseman

OAKLAND (AP) — The California Seals of the National Hockey League announced yesterday they are negotiating with the Toronto Maple Leafs for defenseman Carl Brewer.

In seven years with Toronto, Brewer played on three Stanley Cup championship teams. He was on the NHL all-star team three consecutive seasons.

Brewer retired from professional hockey after the 1964-65 season and has been reinstated as an amateur. He played for the Canada National team in the 1967 world hockey championship at Vienna.

The Seals are negotiating with Toronto and the league office to have Brewer reinstated as a pro. Under his present status, he is ineligible to play pro hockey until Dec. 15, 1968. The Oakland team said that if Brewer cannot be obtained for the upcoming season, negotiation will continue for the following campaign.

Adult Golf Class Slated In Novato

Adults who would like to learn golf, mav do so in the beginning adult golf class which will start Monday with Jeff McAndrews, pro at the Indian Valley Club, as instructor.

The course will be taught from 7 to 8:30 p.m., on Mondays and Wednesdays for a month at the Novato High School football field, sponsored by the Novato Parks and Recreation Department.

Mill Valley Nine Slates Tryouts

Mill Valley Merchants semi-professional baseball team will conduct its first practice and tryouts of the season Sunday at Mill Valley's Project 17 Park, 10:30 a.m., Manager Bob Selna announced today.

"High school and college players are invited to the tryouts to fill the many openings on the team," Selna said. Last year Mill Valley compiled a 21-5 won-lost record.

Saldivar Retains Title

CARDIFF, Wales (AP)—Vicente Saldivar of Mexico began a European holiday today, his world featherweight boxing title still intact after a blazing defense last night.

Saldivar, 24, blasted Britain's Howard Winstone into a 15-round points defeat before a crowd of 30,000 Welshmen in Cardiff's open-air Ninian Park Stadium.

English referee Wally Thom scored it 73¾ points for Saldivar and 73¼ points for Winstone—two-round margin on the British Scoring system.

But Saldivar, a pocket version of Rocky Marciano, punished the skilful 28-year-old Welshman so effectively in the closing rounds that the narrow points margin did not reflect the Mexican's final superiority.

The fight was almost an exact replica of Saldivar's title victory over Winstone in London in September, 1965.

Saldivar, who weighed 125¼, dropped Winstone with a flurry of blows for a count of eight in the 14th round, but couldn't knock out the courageous Welshman.

Winstone weighed 125 pounds. "I'm looking forward now to a nice holiday in Europe," Saldivar said.

The little Mexican said he is going to France on Monday and will carry out a short tour on the Continent before returning to a hero's welcome in Mexico.

Robinson Lashes Mates

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The frustrated world champion Baltimore Orioles, smarting from a tongue lashing by Frank Robinson, blew a five-run lead last night and dropped their third straight game to the Kansas City Athletics, 6-5 in 11 innings.

The defeat left them in third place five games behind the American League leading Chicago White Sox, which had prompted Robinson to blurt out before the game:

"This is too damned good a ball club to be down where we are."

Robinson, the league's Most Valuable Player last year, said there was some jealousy and resentment because he and some others had tried to hold a players-only meeting in an effort to light a fire under the club.

"Maybe if I stir up a hornet's nest it's a good thing," he said.

"Maybe they'll get stirred up enough that we'll get back up where we belong. What this club needs is to get mad and start winning."

It looked as if the Orioles were doing just that as they built up a five-run lead behind Tom Phoebus, who pitched a two-hitter through seven innings.

Robinson started it with a single in the second inning and doubles by Dave Johnson and Andy Etchebarren scored two. Boog Powell's tremendous home run in the fourth added another, and two more came across in the sixth as Baltimore finished off Jim Nash.

But the A's sent 10 men to bat in the eighth in a five-run onslaught against Phoebus and Moe Drabowsky. And in the eleventh two A's rookies combined to bring in the winning run. John Donaldson rifled a triple off Eddie Watt, and Reggie Jackson singled him home.

Robinson's verbal blasts brought varied reactions before the game. The big outfielder, triple crown winner a year ago, is having another banner year, hitting around .340 with 18 home runs and 53 runs batted in.

Manager Hank Bauer said Robinson used the wrong word—jealousy. "I would say some are envious of him," said Bauer, who added: "We had at least two guys last year hitting good in every game. This year we haven't. That's the difference."

Brooks Robinson said he didn't think anyone was jealous.

"I know I'm not. We aren't going to win it without Frank and we aren't going to win it without two or three other guys either."

Frank Robinson had been quoted in a story in the Baltimore News American as saying "I know there's some jealousy on this club. I wouldn't call it dissension—that's too strong a word."

SPORTS SHORTS

$50 Million Complex Planned In Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — A $50 million sports complex a step from Chicago's Loop is being planned with a target date of 1971 or 1972 by the Chicago White Sox.

Privately financed, it would be on 50 acres of air rights just south of the city's center.

Announcement was made yesterday by Arthur Allyn, president of Comisky Park Corp., that his group and the Western Indiana Railroad Co. have formed agreement for the development.

It will consist of a baseball park with seating capacity of about 46,000; an enclosed arena for basketball and hockey with 15,000 seats, and a football and soccer stadium with about 60,000 accommodation.

Allyn said he hopes the Chicago Cubs, Chicago Bears and Chicago Bulls—baseball, football and basketball—would utilize the facilities but if not, the complex would be built anyway.

TENNIS

BECKENHAM, England — Mrs. Billie Jean King, the present Wimbledon champion from Long Beach, Calif., trounced Australia's Kathy Krantzcke 6-2, 6-3 in quarter-finals of the Kent Lawn championships.

Wall Street Drops After Early Gains

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market was mixed at the close today, having backed away from an early rise.

Prices reached their best in the first hour. Thereafter the gain was trimmed.

By the closing bell gains and losses were about equal although industrials seemed to have a higher edge.

Volume for the first four hours was 8.27 million shares compared with 7.85 million yesterday.

Gains had a slight margin over losses. The industrial average was ahead more than 3 points thanks to strength in selected blue chips.

The market was higher from the start, reached its peak in about an hour and then began to level off.

Hunt Foods led in activity and advanced about a point.

Varian Associates also was heavily traded and sank about 4 following a company forecast of lower profits.

Active gainers included Hess Oil up nearly 2 and CBS and Gulf & Western, both ahead more than a point.

As profits were taken in some of the higher-priced glamor stocks, Polaroid lost nearly 4 and Control Data 3.

Du Pont bolstered the list with a rise approaching 2.

The top three steelmakers made fractional gains while the major autos were narrowly mixed.

Utilities moved generally higher but gains were small. Electronics were steady to higher.

Oils showed little change on balance.

American Stock Exchange prices advanced.

The largest squid ever captured measured 57 feet in length, of which 35 feet were tentacles.

THE WEEK IN BUSINESS

State's Economy Takes Dip In April Despite Hirings

A decline in consumer spending caused a dip in California's economy in April, despite record high employment, according to Wells Fargo Bank's Business Index — which uses 1957-59 as base years of 100. The index registered 133.6 for April, compared to 139.8 in March.

In the San Francisco Bay Area a rise in spending offset a less than seasonal rise in employment. Here the index showed a rise from 131.5 in March to 133.9 in April. Total employment in the Bay Area climbed to 1.2 million, but gains in government services and public utility jobs were nearly offset by losses in construction and manufacturing.

WELLS FARGO BANK has increased its quarterly dividend from 30 cents to 35 cents a share, payable July 10. This establishes a new annual rate of $1.40 per share. Dividends were last increased in July, 1966 when the annual rate went from $1 to $1.20 per share.

THE BANK OF BRITISH COLUMBIA is now under organization and has been chartered by the Parliament of Canada. It will be the first major Canadian financial institution with headquarters in Vancouver. The bank made its initial offer of three million capital shares at $25 each starting yesterday, to close July 15. Canada's 10th chartered bank, it will be the first to specialize in the export-oriented timber, mineral, fishing and agricultural economy of British Columbia.

UTAH CONSTRUCTION AND MINING CO. has increase its quarterly dividend from 25 cents to 30 cents a share. Dividends paid and declared in fiscal 1967 amount to 80 cents a share, compared with 75 cents in the 1966 period. For the six months period ended April 30 the company's after tax earnings were $9.1 million, highest in its history and 40 per cent above the first six months of the preceding year.

PACIFIC POWER AND LIGHT CO. directors have authorized a quarterly dividend payment of 30 cents per share on common stock, payable July 10. The regular quarterly dividend payment on outstanding shares of preferred stock will be made on the same date.

DUNHILL INTERNATIONAL CORP. will be the surviving corporation in a merger with A P Parts Corp. Merger terms will be submitted for approval at stockholder meetings of both companies on Aug. 29. Dunhill is a large manufacturer of nursing bottles and infant feeding equipment. It also owns approximately 72 per cent of the outstanding shares of A. G. Spalding and Bros., Inc., the sporting goods company, and 53 per cent of the common stock of American Bank Note Co. A P Parts merged with Muskegon Piston Ring Co. last year. It produces auto parts, mainly exhaust systems, piston rings and shock absorbers.

PACIFIC AIR LINES will start non-stop jet service from the Hollywood-Burbank Airport to Las Vegas, effective today, with two roundtrips per day. New flights will provide through plane service from Eureka and San Francisco to Las Vegas.

BULOVA WATCH CO., New York, with last year sales of $123.8 million now claims to be the world's largest watch company. World-wide sales represented an increase of 24 per cent and a new high in Bulova's 94-year history. The company's products are manufactured on three continents and marketed in 89 countries.

OMARK INDUSTRIES, INC. directors have declared a 4 per cent stock dividend on the company's common stock, to be issued Aug. 7. Fractional shares will be paid in cash. Omark has issued a similar dividend in each of the past two years.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Inflation Protection Is A Long Term Deal

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. "My husband is semi-retired. We have $8,000 in savings and own a rental property with an annual income of $1,380 a year. We will have a pension and some earning power. We have $6,000 that we would like to invest to increase our capital and insure ourselves against inflation. Should we buy good growth stocks or convertible bonds? Please give me some help." R. S.

A. Gladly. I should first like to point out that real estate and common stocks each offer protection against inflation, but only on a long-term basis. Both are capable of rising in price over a period of years at a rate at least sufficient to offset rising living costs. Your rental property appears to afford a satisfactory hedge. If you wish to add to it, I suggest three growth issues that could strengthen your position. These are Holiday Inns, American Home Products and Foxboro.

Convertibles are attractive when their exchange privilege has sufficient future value to allow them to rise in price if the common moves up. They should at the same time afford yield enough to limit downside risk in a falling market. At present, there are few if any convertibles that offer both these elements.

Q. "What is a short sale? Do you have to put down any money?" S. S.

A. The ordinary short sale involves selling stocks you don't own in the hope of buying them in later at a lower price. To sell short, you must open a margin account and deposit cash or securities to the extent of at least 70 per cent of the value of the shorted stock. The broker borrows shares to cover your sale and you must make payment to him for any dividends declared while you maintain a short position. I should like to add that there are mental hazards in short selling and I do not recommend the practice for a person without trading experience.

Bank Uses Own Fleet Of Planes

LOS ANGELES (AP)—You've heard of inter-office memos by phone and note, but how about by airplane?

The world's largest bank, the Bank of America, maintains its own twin-engine Bonzas strictly for inter-branch delivery service.

Named Banking by Air, the airline logs 3,500 miles a day on routes from Arcata in the north to San Diego near the Mexican border.

The million dollar cargo that each plane hauls consists of letters, canceled checks and documents.

The operation has proved so efficient that 915 branches of the bank use its services.

Once the plane reaches the airport a ground messenger takes over, transferring the cargo to the bank branches.

The airplanes have had more luck than the ground messengers. One auto courier's vehicle has collided with deer three times.

Foremost Names New PR Manager

SAN FRANCISCO — James S. Cohune has been promoted to public relations manager on the corporate staff of Foremost Dairies, Inc., of San Francisco.

Cohune joined Foremost nearly four years ago as public relations representative. Prior to that he served as a public information officer in the U.S. and Europe.

Marin Bank Debits Are Up

Marin County bank debits and deposits for May were both up from last year figures.

The Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco reported unadjusted debits of $175,701,000, compared with $161,713,000 in May of last year. Unadjusted deposits increased to $84,560,000 from $77,565,000 a year ago.

No seasonally adjusted debits, deposits or turnover ratios are yet reported for Marin County.

Block In Milwaukee Bank Is Purchased

MILWAUKEE — Sterling Precision Corp. has acquired a substantial interest in the stock of the Milwaukee Western Bank.

Milwaukee Western is one of the largest banks in Milwaukee County, with deposits of more than $50 million and total resources in excess of $60 million.
